Volume #4

HOW TO USE THIS BOOK
MEMORIES FROM MOWEAQUA
VOLUME 4

Excerpts from The Moweaqua Call-Mail, 1898 – 1901

TO THE READER:

This is the fourth volume prepared from extracts of the Moweaqua Call-Mail, Shelby County, Moweaqua, Illinois. Volume 4 covers the period of 1898 through the turn of the century, and continuing through the end of 1901. As with all the volumes, Volume 4 includes births, marriages, and deaths, as well as birthday celebrations and anniversary celebrations. This data was included because their inclusion may be beneficial to researchers when pinpointing a birthday or wedding date. Hopefully, this will add to the genealogical value of this document. Volume 4 follows the same format at Volume 3, and the same sections are included so that each volume will stand on its own merits.

a. Sketches of Individuals found the Moweaqua Call-Mail:

Sketches of individuals have been extracted from the newspapers when found. In this particular volume, there were no individual sketches or photographs of individuals, however, I have included extracts of some of the local advertisements found in each year. These ads are found in this section by year, but are not indexed.

b. Common Illnesses – Old Diseases – Modern Definitions:

Many tragic deaths were attributed to illnesses that have strange sounding names by today's standards, but which were very common during this time. Because of antibiotics and the great strides in medical advancements since this era, the cure for many of these once life-threatening diseases has been found. I have researched the most common illnesses mentioned and added a brief description of them for reference. These common illnesses caused much distress to our pioneer ancestors, even deaths, and since this was part of our history, I felt this section should be included in this volume. A reference sheet is provided at the end of this section.

c. Newspapers Mentioned in the Moweaqua Call-Mail:

In some instances, articles were copied from other local newspapers and included as part of the news in the Moweaqua Call-Mail article. When this happened, I have shown reference by listing the applicable newspaper in (). For reference only, I have compiled a list of the most frequently quoted newspapers during this time. In some instances, these newspapers are no longer in existence and in this section, I have listed as much information as I could find about a specific newspaper. I have listed them in alphabetical order on the 'newspaper list', and have given current and historical information when known. A reference sheet at the end of this section lists my research sources.

d. Names and Places Mentioned in the Moweaqua Call-Mail:

Some of the towns and villages mentioned on the pages of the Moweaqua Call-Mail may be so small that they no longer appear on current Illinois State maps, and some of these small communities may now have even become extinct. Therefore, I have included this section, which includes a description of the specific location of many of these small towns and villages. When additional information was found, I included that information as a brief narrative. A reference sheet at the end of this section lists my research sources.

e. Maps – Township, County, Locality and State of Illinois (1822, 1876, 1999):

For easy reference I have included the map section, which includes various maps of the Illinois and specifically, the Shelby County region. Included in this section is the oldest Illinois map I found, dated 1822, followed by county maps, a map of Illinois from 1876, and later one of the current Illinois road maps. I have also identified the most commonly found towns and villages and added them to the legend on specific maps in this section, which includes township maps, county maps, and plat book information. A reference sheet at the end of this section lists my research sources.

f. Extracts by Specific years – Moweaqua Call-Mail:

As with previous volumes, Volume 4 includes exact calendars for each researched year, and information on births, marriages and deaths, as well as birthday and anniversary celebrations, and family reunions. All entries are made in chronological order. A complete alphabetical index is found in the back of this book. I have tried to make Volume 4 easy to use, informative and a quick reference guide to find specific individuals or events. Even the assassination of our then-President Wm. McKinley is chronicled in this volume. Special notes concerning women's names and 'notes': Women's names sometimes cause a problem, as their names are given in the newspaper article as 'Mrs. J D Doe', which does not distinguish if 'J D' is her initials or her husband's initials. Thus, women are indexed as: Doe, J D (Mrs.) since that is how the information was presented. If a woman's maiden name is known or given, the woman will be indexed both under her maiden name and her married name(s). If the information was unclear, or if I was unsure of any information, found an obvious mistake, or did not copy an article in its entirety, I have included a '(Note:)' which explains my actions.

Interesting statistics about Volume 4: Each year's information is approximately 60 pages in length, single-spaced, type written. Most of the information is copied verbatim from the original article. There are just under 7,000 individuals' names listed in the information extracted for this book. It takes months to compile, edit, type, proofread, highlight names, index and proofread a second time, and then finalize a finished copy. There are only 4 copies of each volume in existence at this time. The newspapers I extract the information from are original documents, and as you know, are over 100 years old, or very close to it. These originals are extremely fragile and valuable. Each page must be tediously handled or the paper will crumble or tear. Sometimes the print is not as good as it could have been, sometimes I find articles missing in part or where someone had cut an article out. Most of the time a magnifying sheet is required to read the newsprint. I realize there is some duplication of the extracts, but I chose to leave them in 'as found'. Better to include them than to miss a valuable news item and have it lost!

I have tried to make this an informative, easy to use book and capture as much information for the Moweaqua and Shelby County area as possible. I hope you enjoy this latest volume...there will be approximately 4 more volumes to be added to this research project. My thanks to a very special lady – Barbara Collins, Moweaqua Librarian, for this project. Without her, this could not have been completed.

The Nichols-Shepard Separator

The essential points in a Separator are capacity, thoroughness of separation, and simplicity and durability of construction. On each of these points the Nichols-Shepard Separator has great advantage over all other threshing machines. Any one of the nine sizes will thresh more and save more grain than the corresponding size of any other separator.

The Nichols-Shepard Separator is as strongly, simply, yet perfectly made as a separator can be. The work of separation is done without the aid of pickers, raddles, forks, or other complicated parts that in other machines cause continual bother and expense by breaking or wearing out.

IT'S A GOOD SIGN —

That There's a Growing Demand

For a better class of goods in general, clothing in particular. Men have learned a wholesome lesson, how to steer a middle course between extravagance and the other extreme of straggly cheapness. The day of shoddy clothing has gone, and the highest, highest order, with cheaped tags in the name, must now be taken in every other direction. Things are being done that were never dreamed of before. The quality of the goods is being improved, and the price is being lowered. It is a good sign that the demand for better goods is growing.

Old Disease Names and Their Modern Definitions

An alphabetical listing of the common illnesses and diseases often mentioned in the extracts in this book. Many of these diseases were the cause of many of the deaths listed in this book.

Acute Nephritis: Inflammation of infection of the kidneys as opposed to the lower urinary tract. Acute nephritis disease follows infections with streptococci, which used to give rise to scarlet fever. Symptoms include sore throat, blood in urine, swelling of the face and legs, pain in the small of the back, headache and rise of blood pressure. Patient may become breathless and suffer from nausea. Treatment is bed rest, salt free diet, fluids are restricted and intake of protein cut. After a week to ten days patient showed signs of improvement. Death was usually caused by the complications associated with nephritis. (See Bright's Disease and Nephritis)

Apoplexy: A stroke or 'brain attack'. It is an old term, seldom used today. The condition is caused by an acute blocked or broken artery in the brain. Responsible for stopping part of the blood supply of the brain resulting in loss of consciousness, paralysis or death. The effects of a stroke may be lifelong, because dead brain cells are not replaced. A stroke can affect the senses, motor activity and speech. Today's treatment may include surgery, drugs, hospital care and rehabilitation.

Biliousness: Jaundice or other symptoms associated with liver disease; any upset leading to vomiting bile.

Bright's disease : A kidney disease. Named for Dr Richard Bright, an English Physician who first described the disease in 1827. Cause is unknown. The disease is characterized by leakage of blood protein into the urine. Sometimes the first symptoms are puffiness around the eyes or difficulty putting shoes on from swollen feet. Around 1913 physicians stopped using the term 'Bright's disease' for kidney diseases/disorders. Fatal prior to 1913/1915 era. (See 'Acute Nephritis' and 'Nephritis')

Camp Fever: Usually another name for typhoid fever. Typhus has appeared in the ports, but it was not a disease of the Civil War. In spite of repeated introductions from Europe and from Mexico, this form of typhus failed to form a permanent foothold in either Canada or the United States. The American Civil War of 1861-1865 was one of the few wars of any magnitude in which typhus was not epidemic among the military camps, prisons, refugee camps. (Also see Typhoid Fever)

Catarrh: Also spelled 'Catarrh'. Hippocratic word meaning discharge from an inflamed mucous membrane, particularly from the membranes lining the air sinuses of the head and the air passages of the nose and throat. As a diagnosis, 'catarrh' has almost disappeared, for it is entirely 'unspecific', as the name for a symptom, it tends to linger.

Catarral Fever: See Catarrah

Cholera/Cholera infantum: Cholera infantum refers to cholera occurring in the very young infant and up to 2 to 3 year old youngsters; 'infantum' being Latin for 'infant'. Cause is the infection with the cholera virus; incubation period is 2 to 5 days. Greatest danger is the loss of body fluids. There are normally 3 stages: (1) Mild diarrhea and vomiting which can rapidly get worse; patient experiences severe cramps. Temperature is raised but the skin is cold and blue, patient may have a terrible thirst, which, when satisfied by water only makes the cramping worse. This stage may last 3 to 12 hours. (2) Stage of collapse; body starts to become colder, the skin dry, voice weak and husky, urine scanty and dark or altogether absent. Blood pressure falls to a low level. Young infants normally die at this stage; may occur in as little as 24 hours after the first onset. (3) In favorable cases, the third state is the stage of recovery. Follows when all the changes appear to reverse themselves, with fluid loss decreasing and the general condition improving. However, the danger lies in that a relapse may occur or the patient may sink into a condition resembling typhoid fever in which he gradually deteriorates over a period of two or three weeks. During this 'stage of reaction', the temperature may be raised and the patient may be in danger from pneumonia. Treatment is combating the loss of fluids and salts from the body by having the patient ingest a saline solution. All cases must be isolated and bedding and everything soiled by the patients must be sterilized to prevent spreading and contamination. Very severe; frequently resulted in death, especially in the very young children.

Consumption: See Tuberculosis. The effect of the disease was that of 'wasting away'.

Cramp Colic: Appendicitis. Inflammation of the appendix. Symptoms include stomach pain nausea or vomiting, tenderness in the lower right portion of the abdomen and fever. Prompt surgical intervention is necessary. If an infected appendix is allowed to remain in a patient, it can rupture or cause extreme infection in the lower abdomen and toxins in the body, and death will result.

Croup: Congested cough.

Death from 'Teething': Tooth infections with inflammation and cellulitis were causes of illness and death before there was adequate dentistry.

Diphtheria. A contagious infection caused by a bacteria. Infection most often attacks the respiratory system, causing severe swelling of the airways—sometimes severe enough to block most or all airflow and causing death. The infection may also cause inflammation of the heart and nerves. Prior to 1920, diphtheria spread freely, causing epidemics and often killing children and patients in a weakened condition. Prior to this time, this was one of the most frequent causes of death and most feared disease. The most common form results in a patient with a sore throat and a severe respiratory problem. A characteristic gray membrane develops over the tonsils and the back of the throat. It is a sheet of cells, bacteria and secretions that can break loose and completely block the airways, producing a medical emergency. Diphtheria infections can exhibit several variations (sinus infections, larynx (voice box) infections, and some strains produce a toxin that damages the heart and nerves. Symptoms first appear two to five days of exposure to a person infected with diphtheria and include sore throat, runny nose fatigue, headache, fever and chills, nausea, hoarseness, difficulty breathing, cough and difficulty swallowing. Today's treatment includes immunization via vaccinations and if already contacted, antibiotics of penicillin and erythromycin are effective.

Dropsy: Edema (Swelling) Retention of body fluids in some tissue or cavity of the body, usually of the hands and feet, although other parts of the body may show visible signs. Water (fluid) retention of the body is caused by kidney or heart disease. Today is more commonly called 'kidney failure' or 'congestive heart failure'. Today's treatment includes prescribing various drugs to relieve the fluid build-up; Lasix is one of the most popular prescription drugs, although there are others available. (See Dropsy of the heart)

Dropsy of the heart: Fluid build up around the heart sac. Retention of body fluids in the chest cavity which, if left untreated will cause death to a patient because the body system shuts down. An old name for 'congestive heart failure'. (See Dropsy)

Encephalitis (Viral): Among the most severe of insect borne infections. Illness caused by a virus spread by the bit of a mosquito which has bitten an animal that carries the virus then transfer it when biting a human. Most cases of encephalitis occurring during mosquito season, from late spring until early frost. Person may become confused, feverish, sleeping, develop a headache, vomit, staggered walk, difficulty in talking or seem to be in a perpetual state of nightmare. Some of the viruses that cause viral encephalitis can destroy parts of the brain.

Erysipelas: This disease prevailed as an epidemic and many suffered terribly from this disease. When it attacked the face (its favorite site), the features were horribly swollen and distorted, the eyes closed, and when all was painted over with iodine (a frequent local remedy), the sufferer's countenance was as in-human like as can be imagined.

Falling sickness: Epilepsy

Gout: Still called this today. Inflammation of an extremity – usually the foot, resulting from some fatty blood vessel/circulation problems. Not dissimilar to arthritis, but not involving the joint in the same way. It refers to an inflammation, not just in a joint, or an extremity, caused by the formation of crystals of oxalic acid when it accumulates in the body. It most often occurs in joints where circulation is poor, but can even cause gallstones or kidney stones. Extremely painful, may cause the infected area to become hot, redden, and vary in sensitivity. Often called the 'rich man's disease', probably comes from the fact that anything which aggravates the acid level in the blood may bring on an attack, including lots of red meat (since that was expensive until modern times, only the well-to-do might be exposed to that 'trigger' of gout). Today's remedy includes increasing the intake of water. An attack can be calmed within 12 hours or so to the point where it's possible to walk again. Without treatment, attacks diminish over a week to ten day period. Most common gout manifests itself as a swelling in the big toe joint (either foot). The most common description is: high uric acid levels in the blood cause uric acid crystals to form in the joint linings. As the joint moves, then it's equivalent to having sandpaper rubbing against the joint linings and bone – result: incredible pain. Attacks come on very suddenly without warnings. Neither heat nor cold packs seem to make much difference.

Heatstroke: A grave emergency that is often fatal; caused by body fluids and salts they contain have been passed off from the body; person suffering from heatstroke has gotten overheated and suffers from dehydration. Act quickly to cool the victim. Symptoms include very hot, absolutely dry skin and no sweating. Body temperature is very high, from 104 degrees to an incredible 110 degrees. The victim may exhibit weakness, dizziness, rapid breathing, nausea, unconsciousness and mental confusion. Onset is dramatically sudden. Apply ice cold cloths to the head, drench clothes with warm water or pour water on them, even spray with a hose. Preferably strip the victim's clothing, wrap in a sheet then keep the sheet wet with cold water; keep victim in prone position; rub their arms and legs toward the heart.

Hydrophobia: See Rabies

La Grippe: Commonly known as Flu. 'La Grippe' is French for the English word 'grippe'. In modern days we know this as either 'influenza' or simply 'the flu'. The flu used to be a deadly disease and still can be fore people with immune systems weakened by other diseases, age or general bad health. One of the greatest dangers from LaGrippe is it resulting in pneumonia and other complications that lead to death of the patient. Modern treatment is antibiotics and bed rest; preventative measures are annual flu injections.

Lockjaw: Also commonly known as Tetanus. Tetanus (lockjaw) is a serious disease that is caused by an organism that produces spores that act as tiny seeds, can be found in the soil and the intestinal tracts of man and animals. The spores commonly enter our bodies through cuts, burns, scratches and other wounds. Only where there is dead tissue or the tissue has closed over a wound and excludes oxygen can the micro-organisms develop. They then produce tetanus toxin, a powerful nerve poison that travels along the nerves and produces damage to the central nervous system. The interval between the time of a wound and the appearance of symptoms ranges from a few days to months. Severe cases appear quickly. The onset of tetanus causes restlessness, irritability, stiffness of muscle groups and difficulty swallowing. Muscle spasms in a limb or jaws is sometimes the first evidence of the disease, hence 'lockjaw'. Tetanus is very severe and often leads to death. Today's treatment consists of giving oxygen to assist in breathing. Antibiotics kill the bacteria, but they do not neutralize the toxin that has already been released. It is still very serious today and preventative measures are taken by periodic tetanus injections, followed by booster shots.

Lung fever: See Pneumonia

Lung Sickness: See Tuberculosis

Malarial fever: An infection with the parasite of malaria carried by mosquitoes. The parasite must find the liver within one hour after introduction into the blood stream or they die. If they do find the liver, they grow there and reproduce. The parasites leave the liver as 'merozoites' which pass into the blood and invade the red blood corpuscles where they start their life cycle. Four main sorts of malaria; all have the same symptoms of headache, shivering, sweating and pains in the limbs. Symptoms may appear as short as 6 days after infection. Clumps of the malaria may block capillaries in the vital organs—brain and spinal nervous systems, lungs and suprarenals—at any time during the course of the disease, which may prove to be quickly fatal. Prevention includes removal of breeding places for the mosquito; keeping houses free of mosquitoes and today, use of insect repellent. Treatment of malaria since the seventeenth century was 'quinine' which acts against the parasites while they are inside the red blood cells. It is not often used now because quinine can affect the ears and may cause Blackwater fever. In acute emergencies, intravenous treatment with drugs is effective. Relapses may occur with the same force as the initial onset of malaria.

Milk Leg: In the 1800's, milk leg was common following childbirth. It was a painful swelling of the leg soon after childbirth due to thrombosis of the large veins. Today it would commonly be called 'phlebitis' or an infection or irritation of the veins of the leg, caused by inflammation and clotting in the femoral veins, usually as a result of infection during childbirth. The more formal name is 'Phlegmasia Alba Dolens'. Today's treatment includes bed rest, elastic support and aspirin.

Nephritis: Refers to any condition that produces inflammation and damage to the kidney tubes and spaces between them. A synonym for nephritis is Bright's disease named for Richard Bright (1789-1858) who described examples of many different diseases which can be included under the term 'nephritis'. A convenient classification used to divide medical diseases of the kidney into acute nephritis, chronic nephritis and nephrotic syndromes. In the 1800's and earlier, kidney inflammation/failure led to death of the patient. Chronic nephritis was the state into which patients passed who did not make a complete recovery from acute nephritis. Treatment includes complete bed rest, salt-free diets, fluid restriction (until the patient shows improvement) and decrease of protein. (Also see Bright's disease)

Peritonitis: Inflammation of the peritoneum. Caused by perforation of an internal organ, the spread of a bacterial infection, or interference with the blood supply to an internal organ. May be acute. Symptoms include severe pain spreading all over the abdomen. Patient lies still, is pale and has a quick thready pulse, bad breath, dry, clammy skin, breathing is shallow and constipation absolute. Muscles of the abdominal wall are rigid. Treatment consists of antibiotics followed by fluids.

Pneumonia: Inflammation of the lungs. There are two types, lobar- and broncho-pneumonia, but they run into each other and are treated the same way. Caused from infection with bacteria, viruses and similar organisms. Symptoms include high fever, shivers, dry cough, over a few hours the cough may worsen, pleurisy may develop, causing extreme pain on breathing. Treatment includes an antibiotic such as penicillin, bed rest and increased fluids. Oxygen may be required by the very ill or elderly patients. Bacterial pneumonia is still a severe and dangerous disease; the majority of patients respond quickly to today's treatment, however, many deaths were attributed to pneumonia before penicillin and today's antibiotics.

Rabies (Hydrophobia): This is an extremely painful, fatal disease resulting from an infection of the nervous system by the rabies virus, transmitted by an infected animal through a bite or through licking the damaged human skin. The offending animal was usually a wild species, such as a skunk, fox, raccoon, or bat, but may be carried by a domestic animal (cat or dog) that has come into contact with the wild animal. The individual loses control of their nervous system, goes into convulsions, delirium, loses control of saliva (foaming of the mouth) and runs an extremely high fever. Death comes as a blessed relief. Today's treatment involves use of a vaccine that is very painful and must be given frequently into the stomach cavity. Capture of the offending animal, observation and examination of the animal can possibly avoid an individual taking the painful shots if it is found the animal clear of rabies.

Scarlet Fever: One of the childhood diseases that have been tamed by antibiotics. It is a highly contagious infection that is caused by streptococcal bacteria with a very strong endotoxin (bacterial poison). A common cause of death in children before the 20th century; spread by coming into contact with an infected person or inhalation of the bacteria. Once a common and very dangerous illness to young children, usually between the ages of 2 and 10 years. Incubation period of two to five days after exposure, starts with a very high fever of up to 104 degrees, sore throat, followed by nausea vomiting, headache and abdominal pain. Anywhere from 12 to 48 hours later a distinctive scarlet rash appears, first on the neck and chest and then all over the body. The rash feels like sandpaper. In areas of skinfolds, such as armpits, elbow creases, the rash may have a characteristic appearance. Bright red or scarlet rash may appear, usually on the neck or chest. Glands in the neck may become swollen. The tongue becomes swollen and turn bright red. After 3 days the rash and fever usually disappear but the tongue may remain swollen for several more days. Collapse and death may come in as short a time as 48 hours. Like all infectious diseases, it appeared in 'bursts' or epidemics. Unlike certain other childhood diseases, scarlet fever CANNOT be left to run its course. It must be treated or it can lead to arthritis, jaundice, kidney problems and rheumatic fever. Like so many of the diseases common to our ancestors, this disease is no longer so violent and children are not as high a risk for these complications today. Today's treatment includes penicillin and other antibiotics.

Tetanus – See Lockjaw

Typhoid fever: A common cause of typhoid fever is impure drinking water. Several types – malignant type was in epidemic proportions in Eastern Illinois in 1896. Typhoid fever's danger doesn't end when symptoms disappear. Even if the symptoms seem to go away, the patient may be a carrier. If so, the illness could return, or you could pass the disease to other people. Care should be taken to wash hands after using the bathroom.

Typhus: Caused by a bacteria; you can get typhus if you come in contact with insects such as lice or fleas infected with the bacteria. More common in areas where people live in overcrowded, dirty conditions with few opportunities to wash themselves, or can be carried by fleas that live on rats and other rodents. Flu-like symptoms and a pink or red rash characterize all forms of typhus. Typhus can cause serious complications such as pneumonia, swelling of the heart muscle, or liver and spleen. If untreated, can be fatal in elderly persons or persons with impaired immune systems, and the very young. Symptoms include fever, chills, headache, weakness, muscle aches and pains, slightly raised pink or red rash, usually appearing four to eight days after the illness begins, and extreme fatigue. All forms of typhus are treated with antibiotics and respond to this. Improvement usually occurs one to two days after beginning medication.

Whooping Cough: A highly contagious respiratory infection, considered to be one of the most serious traditional childhood diseases. If untreated, it can cause lung damage and recurrent bronchial infections. In infants, it can lead to brain damage and even death. It is most associated with very young children. First symptoms – usually a runny nose, dry cough and mild fever – begin about 7 to 10 days after exposure. After another week, the characteristic cough may develop; violent spasms of coughing followed by a high pitched whooping sound, (caused as the person forces air over a swollen larynx (voice box)), though in babies, this sound is often muted. The person may cough up huge amounts of thick saliva and vomiting is common. Coughing phase usually lasts up to six weeks; patients are highly susceptible to secondary infections that can be quite serious. Other complications resulting from the onset of Whooping Cough, along with the weakened condition of the patient and dehydration as a result of the infection can cause death. Today's treatment is reducing the length and severity of the infection by use of an antibiotic such as erythromycin. Prevention is the DPT (diphtheria, pertussis and tetanus) vaccine given in five doses between the ages of two months and 6 years. The vaccine shows a 90% effective rate.

* NEWSPAPERS *

Newspapers Mentioned in the Moweaqua Call-Mail

The Cowden Herald – Shelby County, Cowden, Illinois. In 1889, E W Anderson established the Cowden Herald. Mr W H Taylor took charge of the Herald in 1891 and carried forward the business for about two years. These newspaper enterprises in Cowden were attended with more or less success, the village having a paper most of the time till 18 March 1892, when the present office of The Reflector was established by O A Jewett and it has since been doing a good business. It was independent in politics till a few years ago, when it became a republican paper. Mr Jewett has a popular personality and is making a good paper.

The Daily Union - Shelby County, Shelbyville, Illinois. In 1874, H L Martin became the sole owner when his brother, P T Martin went out of the business in December. H L Martin has managed ably and has made The Union a paying plant since. He began issuing the Daily Union in January 1887, and his brother Harry Martin (now Shelbyville's postmaster) as editor—and he filled the post with marked sprightliness. The Martins are all clear and forcible writers with a flowing, easy style. James L Darby succeeded H M Martin as editor and manager, and The Daily has continued, under his pen and managerial methods to be bright, breezy, prosperous and popular.

The Findlay Enterprise – Shelby County, Findlay, Illinois. In Findlay, on 3 December 1892, J G Cutler brought forth the first issue of the Findlay Enterprise. In May 1893, Hubert Wright bought the paper who conducted it with honor and credit till May 1896, when he sold it to John W Moore, who bravely bore aloft its banner till the sheriff sold it in August 1897. It was resurrected in a short time by its founder, J G Cutler, who had been a Chicago printer after he sold out, and he has since been carrying forward the Enterprise. He bought both outfits new from Chicago to conform to what he thought a village newspaper plant should be and now has a paying business. Mr Cutler has a good business method and enjoys the respect of a good constituency. The Enterprise was independent in politics till September 1900 when it announced it would, from then on, be a Republican paper.

The Herald – Shelby County, Strasburg, Illinois. In November 1895, W H Fagen started a little newspaper in Strasburg with Harry Cartlidge as editor. In May 1896, he sold the paper to Thomas Inman, who conducted it till the following December when it suspended. Cartlidge and Inman made neat and reliable papers and helped their town by advertising it through their editorials and their ads—but the filed was too small and could not support it. Mr J H Quickset started The Herald which he is now managing with a degree of success.

The Moweaqua Register – Shelby County, Moweaqua, Illinois. It was in June 1872 that A M Anderson, editor, and John P Marnel, as publisher, issued the first newspaper ever in Moweaqua and it was called The Moweaqua Register. Anderson's incisive editorial style was enjoyed by the Moweaquans till December 1875, when it was sold to Arnold

Hughes, the payment being guaranteed by ten leading citizens of the village who knew the worth to a town of a newspaper. For about two years, Hughes ran it alone – when the enterprise was no more – the material passing to the citizens who stood surety for him. After about a year, the 7th of March 1878, F M Hughes bought the plant and started the Register again, and fought adverse conditions for another two years, when it ceased, the plant being taken away. On 12 January 1882, O'Banion and Co of Maroa started The Mail in Moweaqua with W A Steidley (now a successful newspaper man in Louisiana) as editor. It was printed in Maroa and distributed in Moweaqua until March 1882, when Steidley bought it and opened up a home in Moweaqua. In the following September, C M Hiter and A Gilliland bought it and within the year, sold it to J W Crane. In August 1886, C M Hiter issued The Call, which later came into the hands of Pease Brothers, and then Fred & Burres, and finally to Winter and Neblock. In May 1889, W A Steidley took it and combined it with The Mail, which had been moving along through the efforts of Crane; then Johnson and Elsum, and then Pease Brothers, till sold to W A Steidley on 26 July 1889, at which time he gave his paper the name of both, The Call-Mail. On 1 April 1893, the present proprietor and editor, Bryce P Smith, bought and has since been making a pronounced success of the paper as a money-maker, and an influence-maker. It is today published in its own building, has a modern plant and enjoys prosperity.

The Moweaqua Republican – Shelby County, Moweaqua, Illinois. C W Crane took material from the Shelby County Citizen and produced The Moweaqua Republican. History repeated itself again and the plant sank out of sight. On 11 October 1894, Mrs Wm Whitworth got possession of the office, added material, and has since carried forward the enterprise with patience, energy and ability, and the paper has influence and standing as a consistent Republican organ and a reliable business concerns.

Our Best Words – Shelby County, Shelbyville, Illinois. Started about April 1880 by J L Douthit on a monthly basis. He ran a prohibition weekly during the campaign of 1886 and soon after he issued two publications, the monthly religious edition and the weekly prohibition edition. The monthly was discontinued in 1890 and he sold to J S Barnum in 1892. Mr Barnum changed the paper to a populist paper, as well as changing the name, and he called it The People's Paper.

The Shelbyville Democrat – Shelby County, Shelbyville, Illinois. Mr Lloyd withdrew in July 1875 and Dr Waggoner took sole ownership. In October 1876, he said: 'Believing that at least one of the three or four democratic newspapers published in the county ought to bear the family name, we this week send this paper out to its many readers and friends as The Shelbyville Democrat. Dr Waggoner was a ready, lucid and forceful writer and regarded as one of the best political editors in the state. In August 1885 he sold to T J and George R Graybill. On 1 February 1887, the firm became Graybill Bros. and Co with G W Cook as the CO. George R Graybill was editor and manager till Cook became a partner, when the latter took charge of the management. The Democrat has a large circulation and is a prosperous and influential journal, because energy and honesty will have their reward.

The Sigel Advocate – Shelby County, Sigel, Illinois. In June 1893, W S Baichley began publishing the Sigel Advocate and continued with profit to Sigel and more or less benefit to himself till he sold to W A Smith in October 1896, when the present proprietor, P C Trager, took ownership and has since been making it a good local paper that is doing Sigel and Mr Trager profit.

The Stewardson Enterprise. Shelby County, Stewardson, Illinois. Began on 7 June 1878, A M Anderson and H Martin got control of the paper in a few months. Not long after, C D Shumard bought Anderson's interest. In June 1879, W B Townsend took Shumard's interest and the business was continued as Harry Martin & Co, and in the December following, A M Anderson got possession and for a time made a good paper. He was an editor of force and dash. On 16 September 1887, W H Fagen and Zip Wilson started the Stewardson Clipper. Mr Wilson stepped out in a few months and Fagen has since developed the Clipper to its present force as a good local paper, a paying business. He has a good office, a good circulation. Fagen is genial and capable and has a popular paper.

The Tower Hill Breeze – Shelby County, Tower Hill, Illinois. In November 1880, Jacob Swallow of the Pana Palladium bought the True Democrat, Tower Hill's first own paper which began operation on 20 August 1880. Mr Swallow made an independent paper of the True Democrat and after it had been run awhile by Nin Alexander, it was gathered to its fathers, T G Holt and I K Story. They next essayed the rugged seas of newspaperdom in Tower Hill with the Tower Hill Breeze, about 1892. In about a year, Mr Holt took full control, however it was not long till Mr Holt died, when U G Huntoon bought the plant and ran the paper awhile. Thos P Smith took it from him about 1896 and held it about six months when he sold it to W E McCormick, who, for about a year, held it when he sold to H J Hamlin and C W Steward. They, feeling unable to undertake continuance of the enterprise, sold to U G Huntoon (again) who has since managed the Breeze with ability, it being popular, breezy, and a paying business of great value to the town as well as to Mr. Huntoon.

The Windsor Advocate – Shelby County, Windsor, Illinois. This was a thriving local paper published in Windsor for a time, abut 1885, by I H and Chas Gilpin, and it was one of the newsiest and best. Charley Gilpin was a ready writer and a good localizer.

The Windsor Gazette – Shelby County, Windsor, Illinois. J L Warden soon became the sole proprietor and made a good local newspaper of it. It next came into the hands of Charles and Thomas Miner (our present Sheriff), about 1889, and was conducted with energy and ability by them till a year or so, they sold to Wm E McCormick (our present Circuit Clerk) who managed it with good business method for about a year when he disposed of it to Bart Grider, who sold it after a short time to the present proprietors, Lilly and Dunscomb, who have an all home print paper on a paying basis. Mr Dunscomb is a fine printer and Mr Lilly is a good editor and manager, and the Gazette is neat and prosperous.

The Windsor Sentinel – Shelby County, Windsor, Illinois. A M Anderson bought a small newspaper plant from Joseph Prior to Clinton, Illinois, and took it to Windsor and began the publication of The Windsor Sentinel on 25 May 1876. On 7 January 1877, the plant was taken to Paris. It was but a short time, however, till the wisdom of the Windsor citizens, who knew that a local paper was a good enterprise for the delight and convenience of the people of the village, as well as a great force toward the proper growth and progress of the community, induced Anderson to get another plant and continue The Sentinel. He opened it up again in March, soon changed the name to The Dollar Sentinel, and it flourished and struggled fitfully till August 1879 when it ceased, the plant being removed to Shelbyville. Windsor knew another newspaper enterprise on 28 May 1878 when Warden Bros. began The Windsor Gazette.

Wm Snell, the genial proprietor of the Blue Mound Tile and Brick Works was down town several times last Thursday and visited the usual haunts of his friends and companions and to all appearances was just the same Billy Snell as usual. His companions didn't dream of the fact that he had ceased to be a bachelor, though some of them had decided in their own minds that the time was not far distant when he would make a change. But the Moweaqua Call-Mail arrived on the evening train, and the Leader devil, in glancing over its columns came across the startling intelligence that Wm Snell and Miss Cornelia Jarvis had been married in the afternoon of the day before at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jas Jarvis, in that city. As was briefly announced in the last issue of the Call-Mail, at about 9 o'clock Wednesday morning at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. Josiah Berry, in the presence of her loved ones, Mrs. Sarah Ruffner, passed quietly and painlessly from life into eternity. She was truly a venerable and beloved Mother in Israel, being eighty-three years of age at the time of her death, which came after an illness of many months, resulting from a complication of internal troubles combined with old age. At an early hour Friday morning, brief funeral services were held at the residence of Mr. Berry. Rev Rogers of the Baptist Church held a brief service beside the casket and the little funeral procession then wended its way through rain and mud to Todd's Point Cemetery where the remains were interred. Messrs M Snyder, Jr., Sam'l Miller, J E Gregory, Wm Whitworth, J H Kirker and John Clark were the pall-bearers. Sarah Ruffner, who resided with her daughter, Mrs. L A Berry, at Moweaqua, Illinois, departed from all earthly cares to a peaceful rest, 9 March 1898, aged 82 years. Mrs. Ruffner was born in Fairfield County, Ohio, the daughter of Jonas and Mary Ann Friend, on 18 December 1815. She was united in marriage with Noah Ruffner on 18 April 1841, to which this union were born, Mrs. Lou A Berry of Moweaqua, and David F Ruffner, who died near Todd's Point on 6 February 1884. She was the mother of two children, three grand children, and two great grandchildren. Her husband was called to rest on 17 June 1844. Mrs. Ruffner, with her son and daughter emigrated from Ohio to Shelby County, Illinois, in the spring of 1869, residing the last decade in Moweaqua. Deceased had not united with any Church, but was a firm believer in the doctrine embraced by the Primitive Baptist Church and was highly entertained when listening to communicants relating their call from the iniquities of this world to a union and fellowship with the followers of a Blessed Redeemer. In her last sickness, she realized that her earthly pilgrimage was drawing to a close and expressed a desire to meet her Redeemers. She gave directions for her funeral and requested to be interred by the side of her son in Todd's Point Cemetery, which request was strictly fulfilled. The fullness of time had come; the crop was ripe; the harvest was gathered; the sheaf is laid in peaceful rest.

Last Friday, 11 March 1898, being the fortieth anniversary of the marriage of Mr. and Mrs. Geo W Longenbaugh, the children, with their husbands and wives, planned a surprise for them, but as these wise old people are always on the look out and had predicted that 'something was up', the surprise was deferred til Sunday. The children, with their families, except Mrs. Rob't Hunter, Phoenix, Arizona, and A B Longenbaugh, Crowley, Louisiana, gathered at the homestead to do honor and homage to the couple who had traveled happily through life's uneven journey for the time mentioned above. The old folks were completely surprised after all, as they had given up what they had suspicioned.

Mrs. Longenbaugh was brought into the room and seated in a pretty willow rocker, while George W was cornered up and a gold watch and chain put on him. He thought at first the boys were going to rob him, but when he saw what had been done, he felt as proud as a boy does of his first pair of pants. After spending the afternoon in social conversation, all returned to their homes wishing Mr. and Mrs. Longenbaugh many happy returns.

(Shelbyville Democrat) Thursday, 17 March 1898, at 1:10 PM, at the residence of her sister, Mrs. John W Greaves, of Bright's disease, Miss Drusie C Ayars, aged about 49 years, passed peacefully into the indefinite. Since then she has ever been a faithful follower of Jesus Christ. For fully 20 years she has been one of the shut-ins, stricken with disease and almost a constant sufferer. Deprived of the means of peace, in the retirement of invalidism, she has communed with her Master and kept herself in the love of God. The past winter was spent in Decatur in the care of a physician and so great was the change that she felt encouraged to believe she would soon be able to enjoy the privileges of the house of God. But how little we know. She came home and in a short week, she had exchanged the dying for the undying clime. Being taken worse last Sunday and feeling that it might be her last attack, she expressed her wish to be at rest. In the early afternoon of Thursday, her wish was granted and she fell asleep.

Tuesday evening last, 22 March 1898, at five minutes past 8 o'clock PM, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Cross, near Allenboro, Frank Hays, oldest son of John Hays, passed peacefully from life unto death in the twenty-first year of his life. The deceased was a fine young man who bore the respect and esteem of all who knew him. Interment took place at the Long Grove Cemetery on Thursday, 24 March 1898. The funeral will be preached at Long Grove School House, Sunday, 17 April 1898. Frank Hays was born on 21 July 1877 near Moweaqua, Shelby County, Illinois, where he spent most of his life. He died with brain fever after a short illness of three days at the age of 20 years, 8 months, and one day. He leaves a father, Mr. John Hays, a sister, Mrs. Lulu Shelby and a brother, James Hays, and a host of friends to mourn his loss. He united with the United Baptist Church near Oconee, Illinois, in the fall of 1896 of which he was a faithful member unto death. Friday evening the sad intelligence reached Moweaqua by telephone that Mrs. Wm H Ragan, wife of the mayor of Shelbyville and also the judge of the County court, had been found dead at her home in that city, the cause being assigned to heart failure. Following this message, came another to the effect that Mrs. Ragan had undoubtedly committed suicide as carbolic acid was found in her room. Later in the evening the body was given to friends and relatives to prepare for burial. Pinned in her clothing the following note was found: "His wrongs are more than I can bear. God knows all. He shall be my judge, I do not fear to meet him. Farewell Maud and Eliza. He and she are my murderers. You know why this is. He and she are my murderers. May God deal justly with them. He need never raise another deadly weapon above my defenseless head." This is the last message of one now silent in death. It tells its own story, be it truth or falsehood. Saturday morning the jury reconvened, held a post mortem and examined the stomach and heart carefully. Evidences were found indicating that carbolic acid had been swallowed by the unfortunate woman. In her hand was found the picture of her children and on the dresser stood a tea cup with some carbolic acid in it. The body, however, showed no signs of struggle or agony always coming from this corrosive poison. After carefully considering all the facts, the coroner's inquest decided that the deceased had killed herself with suicidal intent by taking carbolic acid. For months gossip has been rampant in Shelbyville concerning the domestic relations alleged to have been existing in the family, the unhappy culmination of which resulted as above. This morning, Mr. John Cairns returned from Mystic, Iowa, bringing with him, a charming bride, formerly Miss Mary Gibson, a young lady of estimable character who at one time resided here.

Here is how our poor boy, Harry W Clark was taken away. He was employed with the Keystone Bridge Company at the steel works at Homestead, Pennsylvania, and was working at an elevation of about 35 feet from the ground, on the construction of the new open hearth furnace. He was putting a bolt in an eye beam when he called to his brother, Wm J Clark, who was on the first floor to throw a wrench up to him and the supposition is that he looked over to see if his brother was picking up the wrench when the traveler on the derrick came along, catching one half of his head against the upright beam, clipping it off instantly, and he immediately dropped, striking on one of the beams on the first floor and then rolled into the basement. Harry was a good boy, thoroughly honest and the tribute paid him at Homestead shows that he made friends wherever he went.

Wednesday, 20 April 1898 issue, Moweaqua Call-Mail:

Friday morning, M L Buchen, purchased a small phial of strychnine, and took it all in a single dose, throwing the phial in the engine fire box at his shop, and calmly set down in the east door to await the coming of death. The act was evidently premeditated for until the deadly poison began its work, the persons in the shop knew nothing of his intended deed. Every effort was made to save him, but he insisted on dying and said if he had thought the suffering would be so intense, he would have shot himself. To his boy, he confessed the deed, admonished him to take good care of his mother and little sister and within an hour he was dead. His suffering was spasmodic and at times terrible. James

Chase was in the shop with Buchen alone and told me he took poison and to send for his boys, saying, "My troubles are more than I can bear," staggered and fell. George Spencer spoke to Buchen and was told he was going to die. "I am not drunk this time, I am going to die", he said to his son, Ed, he did not want to be taken home – "Let me die here."

George stayed with him until he died. Another witness, George M Keiser stated, "Mr. Buchen came to my store at about 10:30 AM to buy strychnine, said he wanted it to kill rats; told him he would have to sign a death warrant for it... here is my record book of poison sales. Mr. Buchen signed receipt for 10 cents worth. That amount of strychnine would kill ten men."

J W Jones testified that at about 10:30 AM o'clock, Pleas Fortner told him that Mr. Buchen had taken poison. I went to the shop and his son said to him, "Pa, you are drunk, you had better get up and go home." Mr. Buchen said, "I can't, I'm stiff, I am dying. Look in the furnace." The empty bottle was found in the furnace. He told his son, Ed he couldn't stand his troubles. His son, Ed Buchen testified he was at home when Chas Brown came for him, and told him father had taken poison. I did not believe him and thought he was drunk, and he couldn't get up, he was stiff. He said he had taken poison and was going to die. He was drinking this morning and was intoxicated. I could tell by his talk and staggering that he was intoxicated. That is the reason we boys left the shop; he was very quarrelsome with everybody when intoxicated. I could tell by his talk and staggering that he was intoxicated. He had not been drinking at 7 AM and had not special family difficulty at home. The verdict of the jury inquiring into the death of Martin L Buchen was that he came to his death by strychnine poisoning and that it was administered at his own hand with suicidal intent. Martin L Buchen was ordinarily a quiet and inoffensive man, a most excellent mechanic and in connection with his two sons had built up a splendid business here. Services were held at the family residence at an early hour on Sunday morning and the remains were conveyed to O'Possum Point Church, southeast of Edinburg for interment, under the auspices of the Edinburg G. A. R. Post, of which he was a member. Martin L Buchen was born in Lancaster County, Pennsylvania, on 30 October 1839. He died in Moweaqua, Illinois, on 15 April 1898, aged 58 years, 5 months and 15 days. He served one year and six months in the Civil War, was a Private in Co C, 79th Pennsylvania Volunteer Infantry. By commendable industry and economy, they prospered and in 1882, moved to Moweaqua, which has ever since been their home. Henry Samuel Parks, son of William Parks, being left a motherless babe, was given by his father to his sister, Debbie, to be reared and with the exception of a short time, she had the care of rearing him from infancy to manhood, doing by him, a mother's part. Letter from Selkirk Righley to his Sister. San Francisco, California, 2 June 1898.

Dear Sister: I received your ever welcome letter this morning, and is useless to say I was glad to hear from you, but sorry that you had not gotten my letter for I wrote while I was in New Orleans, about a week ago. I have just been drilling and am tired. I hope that grandma will not worry about me for I am all right. I have plenty to eat and do not want for anything. The weather is very healthy here. In the morning there is not much breeze but is very cool and windy at night, and an overcoat would be very comfortable. There is a fog about 12 or 1 o'clock at night that is as heavy as a small shower would be there. I have seen some of the most beautiful scenery since I left home. I am only about a mile from the Golden Gate Bridge and I am going over on Sunday if nothing happens. We are stationed about a mile from the Pacific coast and are to leave for Manila in about 10 days. It will take about 35 days to make the run. There are thousands of people here everyday to see the soldiers, and to bring them all kinds of food such as pie, cake, oranges, etc. Oranges are thicker here than apples at home, and sell for ten cents per dozen that would sell for 5 cents apiece at home. There are some of as nice people here as I have ever met. The other day I was in the park and met a couple from Decatur, Illinois, on their wedding tour. When we parted he asked if I wished a glass of lemonade; I said that I didn't see any around here so he handed me a one dollar bill and said for me to get one. At first I refused, but he insisted and as everything is free for the boys in blue, I have the bill yet. I have no use for money while here. I will close hoping to hear from you before I leave. Hope I will see you all again, but may never. Give my regards to all inquiring friends. I remain as ever, you affectionate brother, Selkirk Righley.

VOLUME 4

Excerpts from The Moweaqua Call-Mail

* 1899 *

Wednesday, 4 January 1899 issue, Moweaqua Call-Mail:

Mr. William Kile Andrews and Miss Mattie Snyder were united in marriage at the Methodist Church Wednesday evening last in Moweaqua. Rev A C Armentrout and Rev J Foxworthy officiated. Grooms men were Julius Treiz, Sterling, Sam'l Andrews of Hindsboro (a brother), and Ralph Snyder. Bridesmaids were Miss Bessie Day and Nellie Laymon of Lincoln. The bride is the second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. V Snyder, Jr, an exceedingly pretty and accomplished girl. Born and reared within our midst, she has drawn about her a host of sincere and loving friends. Her home life has been one of unselfish devotion and usefulness to her mother and to all the family. The groom is a prominent and successful young business man of Hindsboro, Illinois, where he is engaged in the grain business. He is by no means a stranger in Moweaqua. The newlyweds will make their home in Hindsboro. (Note: Lengthy article, describes decorations, reception, gives more information on character of the parties and lists guests, not copied in this book).

Wednesday evening at six o'clock at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm Brookshire occurred the marriage of Mr. Fred Wickline to Miss Mabel Brookshire. Rev Crank, the Christian Pastor at Blue Mound officiated. Only near relatives and connections were present, about 25 in all. Miss Viola Penny presided at the organ and discoursed a charming wedding march prior to the ceremony. A sumptuous wedding dinner followed. Mr. and Mrs. Wickline left Thursday on a bridal tour to Evansville, Randolph County, Illinois.

On 21 December 1898, at the home of the bride's parents near Live Oak, Louisiana, C E Boehm and Miss Anna W Hagius were united in marriage by Rev R P Howell. The ceremony was performed at 6 o'clock PM in the presence of about 40 relatives and friends. Miss Ida M Shear was the bridesmaid and Mr. G Hagius groomsmen. After the ceremony, supper was served and enjoyed. The happy couple boarded the early train for Houston and other Texas points and will also visit Lake Charles, Louisiana. Upon their return, Mr. and Mrs. Boehm will reside in Jennings, Louisiana, where Mr. Boehm is engaged in business. Both Mr. and Mrs. Boehm were born in Ohio, but Mrs. Boehm resided with her parents for years near Salem, southeast of Moweaqua, where she is still remembered by her many friends, having removed to Louisiana seven years ago.

After a week of painful agony, little Albert Housam found relief from all suffering Saturday afternoon, 31 December 1898, about 5 o'clock. It was not thought at the time of his injuries that they would necessarily prove fatal, but in two or three days internal complications developed for which there was no relief. All that medical skill could do was brought to bear to aid the little sufferer but without avail. His suffering at times was intense, and it was necessary during his last hours to keep him under powdered opiates. Mr. and Mrs. John Housam came to Moweaqua about 4 years ago from Niantic, bringing Albert, their only child, with them. His untimely death is a sorrowful blow to them and they have the sympathy of a host of friends. At the time of his death, Albert's age was just 9 years, 4 months and 24 days. He was a bright and happy school boy, beloved by his playmates. Services for Albert Housam took place on Monday morning at 8:30 o'clock and despite the early hour, the M E Church was crowded to seating capacity with children, classmates, teachers, friends and relatives. Rev J Foxworthy assisted by Elder Spicer conducted a brief service. Mr. and Mrs. Housman then took the remains to Niantic on an early train where the remains were interred to rest.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Robt McNeal on 27 December 1898, a daughter.

Lawrence Protsman was surprised on his 17th birthday on last Wednesday eve. (List of attendees, not copied here)

M G Warren's daughter of Wichita, Kansas, is visiting relatives here in Allenboro during the holidays.

We are very much grieved to hear of the death of our beloved old neighbor, Grandma Roff who lived by us long and was a neighbor of our people in Indiana years ago. Our sympathies to the family. (Yantisville news)

Mr. and Mrs. W K Andrews received an impromptu ovation at the train yesterday when they left for their home at Hindsboro. Every imaginable sign of good luck had been tied or tacked on to their trunks. Mottoes, ribbons, slippers and various other things completely covered their baggage and an abundance of rice was showered on the newly wedded couple.

Wednesday, 11 January 1899 issue, Moweaqua Call-Mail:

Just as we go to press, Uncle Wash Gregory's condition is said to be extremely critical. It is not thought that he will live through the day. For several weeks he has been suffering for a very severe attack of La Grippe. Later: He died at 11 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm Coultas, southeast, held a 16th birthday party for their daughter Miss Dessie M Coultas on Saturday evening at their home. Quite a number of her young friends attend the celebration of the occasion of her 16th birthday. Music, games and nice refreshments all came in their proper order and the event proved to be most enjoyable.

Mrs. Martha E Bramlett-Reynolds, died at 10 AM on Thursday, 5 January 1899, at St Mary's hospital. Her death was caused by paralysis. Her home is in Blue Mound. She had been at the hospital since 2 September 1898, and she was about 62 years old. She was a consistent member of the Christian Church at Blue Mound. She was well-known in Blue Mound and vicinity, and was held in the highest respect and esteem. She was a sister of Hon Joseph Adams of Christian County and has several other brothers in the vicinity of Moweaqua. She leaves 8 children, 5 sons and three daughters. Two daughters and one son reside in Missouri and the others in Illinois. The funeral was held at 11 o'clock on Saturday morning from the Blue Mound Christian Church. Rev Crank conducted the services. Interment in Adams Cemetery. The story of Mrs. Reynolds during the last few years of her life is a very sad one. It has been fully told in these columns and need not be rehearsed. She was a good woman and had made many friends during her residence here. Her many troubles finally culminated in mental aberration and the relief came with death at a private hospital in Decatur. Her children have the sincere and warm sympathy of her many friends here.

Fred Wallace and Miss Ada Watson both of Assumption, were married at the home of the bride's parents in that city, Mr. and Mrs. James Watson, on Tuesday evening at 6 o'clock. The groom was a former Moweaqua boy and is the son of Mrs. Mary Wallace of Taylorville. At present he is employed by Gus Khule, a cigar manufacturer of Assumption. The bride is one of the leading society ladies of that city and is esteemed and admired by all. They will permanently reside in Assumption.

Philip Doyle of Sycamore, after a lingering illness died. At about the same hour, his sister, who lived a few miles west of Sycamore, Mrs. James Purcell, also passed away.

James A Hawley of Dixon died aged 68 years. He had been, for 40 years, a prominent citizen of Lee County. He was County clerk for 21 years and for 15 years was cashier of the Dixon National Bank. He was thirty-third degree Free Mason, and in 1883 and 1884, was Grand Master of the State.

Mrs. Elizabeth Dodd, aged 83 years, died at her home east of Anna. She was a pioneer settler of Union County.

Samuel C Allen of Decatur died. When he located in Decatur in 1832, there were but seven houses in Decatur. He took up from the Government, 160 acres of land that are now surrounded and covered by houses. He helped organize the Baptist Church in Decatur and in other ways took part in making what is now the city of Decatur. Although 80 years old, up to three weeks before his death, he could walk three miles a day.

Katie Richter, an orphan, 23 years of age, committed suicide at Quincy by shooting in the head with a revolver. She made her home with an uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Ebert, and she left a very pathetic letter addressed to her sister, Mamie Richter of Alton, in which she said she had serious mental troubles and feared insanity.

Young B Clark of Clarksdale, more familiarly known as Uncle Boley died recently at 79 years of age. He had been a resident of Christian County for 55 years and was one of its wealthiest residents.

Tuesday morning of last week, about 4 o'clock AM, Dr E M Alverson of Stonington, was struck and instantly killed by a Wabash freight train on a street crossing in that town. He was a prominent physician and greatly beloved in that community.

Wednesday, 18 January 1899 issue. Moweaqua Call-Mail:

When the information was generally disseminated Wednesday last that Uncle Wash Gregory was dead, it cast a shroud of gloom over the entire community. Few men were more generally beloved by all who knew him well. His life as a man and a citizen seemed to have been one of the inviolable peace with all mankind. He was one of those characters who embraced the divine will with his whole heart. His presence in the community was an inspiration to higher and holier life. The writer knew Uncle Wash – knew him well. He was our warm and personal friend. Always kindly and gracious, always solicitous of our welfare, his visits to us were harbingers of pleasure and happiness. And as we listened to him talk, we knew full well that the words were those of one who, with all his heart and soul and strength, was striving against whatever was mean, unruly and unrighteous in the world. Washington Gregory came to Illinois in 1858 and settled near Long Grove, on the prairie, being a typical pioneer of the day. He removed to Moweaqua in 1865 and went into partnership with a man by the name of Burgee in a little building that stood where now stands the brick block occupied by Clark and Snell. This partnership lasted but a short time when he went into business alone, continuing thus until 1875. In 1877, he took in Mr. A J Combs as a partner, continuing until 1882, when he retired, thus founding and being succeeded by the firm of Gregory, Combs and Co. Uncle Wash was an ardent politician, a tenacious and thoroughly uncompromising republican, and a strong advocate of temperance. He filled from time to time, township offices and village offices, with credit to himself and to the community. He carried no life insurance, neither was he a member of any secret society. He was closely allied only to his family, the Baptist Church, and the republican party. Just as long as he was able to get to the polls, it was a privilege always conceded him, that he be allowed to be the first to cast his vote at each election. On the evening of Saturday, 28 December 1899, he experienced a severe attack of La Grippe. Though medical aid was summoned at once and every assistance rendered, he grew worse, the disease rapidly developing in to catarrhal fever. It was hoping against hope for a brief period, Uncle Wash was old, over seventy one years, and it was soon apparent that he could not survive. At times he rallied greatly, but his final relapse came Tuesday of last week, followed by the scythe of the grim specter, death, on Wednesday morning. He was perfectly conscious until within 20 minutes of the end. He fully realized he was going, and surrounded by his children, the end came sweetly and peacefully. Prior to his death, he had arranged all his business affairs with his children, counseling them to tenderly care for their beloved mother. His death was but the passing of a beautiful spirit across the portals to eternal spiritual life. Services were held at the Baptist Church on Friday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock. As an especial evidence of esteem in which the deceased was held in the community, the public school was dismissed at noon and all the business houses closed during the funeral hour. The Church was filled to far more than its seating capacity by sorrowing relatives and friends. (Services are described in detail, songs sung, choir members listed, not copied in this book). The deceased was one of the seven members who organized the Moweaqua Baptist Church in 1863. The eulogy delivered by Rev Jo. B Rogers, told how simply and purely Uncle Wash had lived his Christianity in his daily life, of what he had lived through during his 71 years of active life and that now he was at rest – eternal rest. A brief prayer by Rev Paisley of the Presbyterian Church and the services were concluded with 'Nearer, My God to Thee', touchingly rendered by the choir. The casket was then taken to the vestibule where the remains were exposed, that the last lingering loving look might be taken of the dear old man. Interment was at the city Cemetery west of town. Washington Gregory was born in Breckenridge County, Kentucky, on 11 August 1827. He was married to Catharine Goatley on 23 July 1851 and came to Illinois on 15 October 1858. Five children were born to them, three of them and the mother being present at the funeral. Those living are: J W Gregory, Mrs. Lou A Combs and J W Scott Gregory. Daniel and Emma Gregory are buried at Long Grove Cemetery. Card of Thanks printed from the Mother and the Children. Mrs. Nick Nalbach received a telegram Saturday conveying the sad intelligence of the drowning of her brother and calling her to her former home in Nashville, Tennessee, at once. She left on an afternoon train. The Nashville Banner reports: The backwaters which cover the baseball park to a depth of six or eight feet claimed two victims late Friday afternoon. Morgan Sherwood and Thomas F Roesch, aged 15 and 11 years, respectively, were drowned while padding about the backwaters upon an improvised raft. The overflows which frequently cover that section of the city, attract hundreds of north Nashville boys, who row about the muddy waters in skiffs, canoes and such other crafts as they can find. Roesch and Sherwood were on a raft which they had made from some timbers and during the course of their journey, they became engaged in splashing each other with water. Roesch, it is claimed, in some way, lost his balance and fell into the water. Sherwood, who could swim, plunged after him. They struggled in the water a few moments, then both went down to the bottom. A number of other boys witnessed the drowning from the banks, but they were so badly frightened that it did not occur to them to go to the rescue until it was too late. The alarm was quickly given and a search for the bodies was instituted. After dragging the park for some time, the bodies were brought to the surface when it was found that the boys were tightly clasped in each other's embrace. The funeral was held at the residence, No 903 Monroe Street, on Sunday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock. Services at First Evangelical Lutheran Church at 2 o'clock, conducted by the pastor, Rev Charles F Burgner.

Wednesday, 25 January 1899 issue, Moweaqua Call-Mail:

Our beloved and valued citizen, James H Kirkman, died in his home in this city on Sunday morning, 22 January 1899, aged 65 years and 4 months. For more than a year he has been suffering from complication of internal troubles. Wednesday, last, he experienced a severe attack of La Grippe which rapidly merged into an affection of the heart, an abscess forming, we are told, that resulted in his death which came quietly and painlessly. In the death of Mr. Kirkman, Moweaqua loses a citizen who always possessed a cheerful smile and a pleasant word for everyone. He was a man without an enemy in the world and very probably the most popular citizen of Moweaqua. He has filled township offices and village offices innumerable, always leaving them with a clean and efficient record. He came to Moweaqua 45 years ago and was for 21 years, continuously in the employ of H F Day and for nine years in the service of Gregory, Combs & Co. He has been an active member of Moweaqua Lodge A. F. & A. M. since 1855, and has held every office within the gift of the lodge. For the past 25 years he has been secretary of the lodge. He was also a charter member of the local lodge, Knights of Honor in which he carried $2,000 insurance. The deceased was born in Vandalia, Illinois, in 1833 when that town was the capital of the state. He married Parmelia Curtis in 1858 in this city, Capt A C Campbell then a justice of the peace, performing the ceremony. What wondrous changes the deceased has witnessed in all those years, and yet to him, they came so gradual that he scarcely realized them. His acquaintance throughout the country about was very extensive and as he calmly pursued the even tenor on his way in the ordinary business channels of life, such was his nature that he not only made acquaintances but friends, warm and sincere friends, who will deeply regret his passing. Owing to the illness of Mrs. Kirkman and her daughter, Miss Daisy Kirkman, they being unable to go to the Church, the funeral services were held from the family residence at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon. As a mark of esteem toward their beloved brother, Moweaqua lodge, A. F. & A. M. attended in full regalia, escorting the remains to their last resting place. Rev Jo. B Rogers officiated. Pallbearers were J P Aydelott, J D Drew and Josiah Berry, for the Knights of Honor and Thomas Smith, J T Walker, and S M Adams for the Masons. Interment in the city Cemetery, west of town. Present for the funeral from abroad were Mr. and Mrs. Geo P Hardy of Decatur, Mrs. M A Kirkman of Winchester, a sister of the deceased and Mrs. Dr Catherwood of Shelbyville.

Jas H Kirkman was born at Vandalia, Illinois, 29 September 1833. He died at his home in this city on Sunday morning at 9:45, AM, 22 January 1899. He was married in Moweaqua on 18 March 1858, to Miss Permelia J Curtis by A C Campbell, Justice of the Peace. He is survived by his wife, and four children, Mollie M Kirkman, George E Kirkman, and Daisy D Kirkman of this city, and Chas T Kirkman of Decatur. Two sisters and one brother also survive him. The sisters live at Winchester, Illinois, and the brother at Oak, Nebraska. He had been a Mason since 1855 and has been secretary of his Lodge since 1875. He was a member of the Baptist Church for 48 years. He came to Moweaqua in 1854 and has lived here ever since except one year at Winchester, Illinois, and one year at Murryville, Illinois. Mr. Kirkman was a carpenter by trade, but gave up his trade and accepted a similar position with H F Day which he held for 21 years. He afterwards held a position with Gregory & Combs for 9 years. Card of Thanks by Mrs. J H Kirkman and children

George Hill aged 86 years died near Mount Vernon, Illinois. He voted for Andrew Jackson and joined the M E Church in early life.

Mrs. Hattie Christopher died at 79 years, a pioneer at Christian County, and died at her home in Ricks township.

Mrs. Nora Romen, one of the oldest residents of Macoupin County, died at her home in Fayette, at the age of 83 years.

Eleneher Noyes, aged 92 years, a prominent pioneer, died at his home in Mattoon.

Two Marion County pioneers have passed away. Mrs. Mary Partridge aged 90 years, died at her home west of Salem, and Winston Wooten of Omega Township, died at 81 years of age.

Mark Plummed died at Sycamore from lockjaw. He accidentally stepped into a vat of boiling feed and the flesh came off his feet. Lockjaw set in, resulting in his death.

At Peoria, James McGlynn, 18 years of age, was thrown from a wagon in a runaway accident, walked about for some time, and went to the hospital and died from his injuries.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. James Bishop on 18 January 1899, a boy.

The community was again shocked yesterday by the sudden death of Mrs. G M Keiser, which occurred between twelve and one o'clock. Mrs. Keiser was taken very ill last Friday with a serious kidney trouble and while suffering most intense agony, grew rapidly worse until death relieved her of all suffering. Mrs. Hannah P Keiser was the daughter of Rev W F Lowe, a Methodist minister, who at the time she married Geo M Keiser in April 1871, was located here. She was a little over fifty-two years of age at the time of her death. Being a resident of Moweauqua for nearly 28 years, by her sweet and gentle demeanor, she had drawn about her, a host of warm friends who deeply deplore her passing. One child, William Keiser, survives her. Services will occur tomorrow (Thursday) at 2 o'clock from the M E Church. Rev J Foxworthy officiating.

Harry J Pratt, a beloved Moweauqua boy, gives his life in the cause of his country.

Calmly and sweetly, with a Christ-like smile spreading o'er his handsome features, still beautiful though showing plainly the effects of illness, Harry Pratt presented a lovely picture Sunday as he lay within the casket, cold in death. With his life, he paid the penalty of highest patriotism. Strong and brave, full of life and hope, he responded to his country's call, only to become a martyr to a victorious cause. With him the price of victory was death—and weather on the field of battle or disease incurred in service, he gave his all—his life. The deceased was the son of our esteemed fellow citizen, H A Pratt, and for many years resided with his parents just south of town. When his mother died he went to Iowa, near Sheldon, and joined with his brother in farming. When the call for volunteers was made, Harry went to Creston, Iowa, and in June enlisted in the 52nd Iowa Vol Inf. His regiment was ordered into camp at Chickamauga and because of climatic differences, Harry contracted a malignant type of malarial fever, which however, did not make itself fully manifested until after he had secured a furlough and returned to his home at Sheldon, Iowa. When Harry fully realized he was going to be ill—the malaria of the south was even then doing its deadly work—he came at once to his home in Moweauqua, arriving here the latter part of November 1898. From malarial fever, the disease rapidly developed into consumption. Throughout his illness, Harry bore his suffering bravely and as a true soldier should, he possessed a most indomitable will-power and made noble fight for life. He wanted to live. To him the world was good and pure and beautiful. He seemed to feel until the very last that he would get well, but alas, that terrible disease claimed him as a victim and the end came Saturday, 21 January 1899, at about 11 o'clock. He had received an honorable discharge from the Army a few days before he died. Services were held on Sunday afternoon from the Baptist Church, Rev Jo. B. Rogers officiating. As an especial honor to the beloved soldier boy, honorary pall bearers from the local G. A. R. post preceded the bier, the following gentlemen acting as escorts in that capacity: Comrades J M Rodman, John Clark, Josiah Berry, Geo Dean, A W Love, J E Gregory and J H Kirker. Active pallbearers were Wm Rodman, Ralph Snyder, Homer Tolly, W T Bowman, Wave Roff and Ed Easley. Interment in the Masonic Cemetery south of town. With an exquisite silk flag lying upon his breast, emblem of his country for which he gave his life, all that is earthly of Harry Pratt was peacefully laid to rest, but the spirit of a brave soldier boy, sanctified in nobility and purity is heaven born, into eternal life and light and infinite glory.

Harry Julius Pratt was born in Shelby County, Illinois, on 6 August 1876 and died at the home of his father, H A Pratt in Moweaqua, Shelby County, Illinois, on 21 January 1899, aged 22 years, 5 months and 15 days. Of a family of ten children, he is the fifth to pass to the other side, the mother also having gone to her reward about two years ago. The deceased enlisted in the 52nd Iowa U S Vol Infantry in June 1898. The Regiment was discharged in September 1898 while he was absent on a furlough on account of sickness so that his discharge was sent to him since he has been at his father's during the last weeks of his illness. He professed a faith in Christ on Tuesday, 10 January 1899, just eleven days before his untimely death.

Mr. A Corrington's infant child died last Monday at Prairieton and was buried in the Hays Cemetery.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. J McNeal on 17 January 1899, a girl, at Prairieton.

James C Cooper of Moweaqua and Mrs. Ida Cottrell of Macon were united in marriage at 3 o'clock on Wednesday afternoon, 18 January 1899, by Justice O W Smith at his office on Water Street. The groom is a coal miner at Moweaqua. (Decatur paper)

Mrs. H E Travis arrived yesterday afternoon about 3 hours after Mrs. Geo Keiser's death. Born to Mr. and Mrs. Peter Bilyeu on 24 January 1899, a boy.

Wednesday, 1 February 1899 issue, Moweaqua Call-Mail:

The funeral services of the late Mrs. Hannah Keiser were held from the M E Church on Thursday afternoon, 26 January 1899, in the presence of an immense throng of sympathizing and sorrowing friends. Services conducted by Rev Armentrout of the Edinburg Church, assisted by Rev Rogers of this city. Pallbearers were Messrs J P Aydelott, Frank Ribelin, A J Combs, C F Gaskill, Wm L Morris and M E Magruder. Interment in the I. O. O. F. Cemetery, west of town. Mrs. Keiser enjoyed the love and esteem of a host of warm friends in this city and her demise is deeply regretted.

James Freeman, one of the most widely known and highly esteemed men in this section of Illinois, died at his home in Decatur early Saturday morning, 28 January 1899. For many years, Mr. Freeman owned and occupied the farm east of town, now owned by Walter Parks. About 20 years ago, he moved to Decatur and engaged with his brother, John Freeman in the shoe business. His long honorable and successful business life brought him into prominence, and he was looked upon as one of the most highly esteemed citizens and substantial businessmen of Decatur. He was a member of the Decatur Club and was past grand dictator and a member of the Supreme Lodge of the Knights of Honor.

From the Decatur Republican: Mr. Freeman has been in failing health for the past two years. He has suffered with chronic liver trouble and the disease has had telling effects upon him. Last October he went to Chicago hoping to benefit his health, but his condition at that time grew worse and for a week or more, he was not expected to live. His family members were called to his bedside and the physicians said there were no hopes for his recovery, but he finally rallied and returned to his home in Decatur. His condition improved sufficiently for him to be able to move out of the house for a short time each day, but about four weeks ago he suffered an attack of the grippe and has since been confined to his bed. On Friday he sank rapidly and it was realized by his family and friends that he could live but a few hours. James Freeman was born 6 April 1836 at Boston, Massachusetts, and was the son of the late Benjamin Freeman. He belonged to one of the old New England families and traced his ancestry back to 1632. When a boy, Mr. Freeman came with his parents to Hillsboro, Illinois, where his father had land interests. It was this place that Benjamin Freeman died and the family moved back to Boston. Mr. Freeman returned to Illinois over 30 years ago. In 1865, at Jacksonville, Illinois, Mr. Freeman was married to Miss May L Wilson. After a lingering illness of many months, an aged and respected citizen passes away. Once again we are called upon to chronicle the death of one of Moweaqua's most estimable old ladies. Mrs. Joseph Duncan had been a patient sufferer from consumption for many months, and when death finally came to her relief Wednesday noon, her friends realized that rest, eternal rest – was hers at last. For many years she had been a resident of this community and her children and grandchildren had grown up and matured into manhood and womanhood about her. For fifty-six long years, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Duncan journeyed along life's pathway, hand in hand. They experienced the trials and triumphs of Illinois pioneers, with a unity of purpose, they gave to the world, their best efforts. They have stood together beside the bier of their beloved ones in days gone by and now Mr. Duncan has silently wept beside the grave of his beloved helpmate. But 'Dust thou are, to dust returnest, is not spoken of the soul.' The immortality of spiritual eternity is not far distant. The day before his death he attended school up to noon and recited his lessons in his usual ready, brisk and comprehensive manner. Jamie was popular with his schoolmates. At home he was both loved and living. He was the life of the family and we might say that for a second time, the head of the family was snatched away, and the remaining members left to watch and wait. To know him was to love him. He was born in 1883 and would have been sixteen years old this coming 26th day of June. When his head was hurting him badly, he said, "Mama, try Christian science on my head." I said to him, "Jamie, I want you to ask God to forgive you, I want you to grow up to be a good Christian man". Afterwards I asked him if he had asked God to forgive him and he said, "Yes, I have, Mama." He died easily with a smile on his face when he drew his last breath. Signed, His Mama.

A profound sensation was created at the beautiful home of Shields H Sanner near Prairie Home in Penn township, Thursday noon, when at the wedding feast of his daughter, Lina Sanner, and in the presence of the invited guests, his eldest daughter, Grace Sanner, deliberately swallowed a large dose of strychnine. Four years ago, Grace Sanner and John B Orris were lovers, and their infatuation for each other was the talk of the County. About 18 months ago, Orris ceased his attention to Grace and became devoted to her half sister, Lina Sanner. At this, Grace became morose and sad. The ceremony was impressively performed at the home of the bride in the presence of a large number of guests. After the ceremony, those present repaired to the dining hall, Miss Grace among them. It was noted that Miss Grace came to the second table with a white powder concealed in her hand. This she placed in a spoon, and quickly swallowed it, washing it down with a glass of water. In a few moment the fatal dose began its deadly work, and then her agony attracted the attention of the guests who did everything possible to save her life, but in less than an hour, death ended her suffering. Last Saturday, Grace Sanner was in Decatur and met Mr. Orris by appointment. The object of their meeting there was to purchase goods for the house which Mr. Orris was fitting up for his bride. They visited a number of stores in the city, and Mr. Orris returned home that afternoon while Miss Grace remained over until Sunday. The fact that she had participated in the preparation of a home for her sister, and the fact that she had engaged to teach the summer school at Prairie Home, and the further fact that she had known for weeks that her sister was to wed Mr. Orris, are circumstances that lead Mr. Sanner to his belief that there were other causes, not known to him, which caused this young woman to kill herself. She was self-willed and rather reticent in her disposition. So far as is now known, she left no note in explanation of her suicide. Where she got the drug with which to kill herself is another thing that puzzles the family. In a little town like Prairie Home it is no easy matter to buy poisonous drugs, and there is strong probability that the young lady made the purchase while she was in Decatur last Saturday. Miss Sanner was a beautiful and highly accomplished girl, about 23 years of age. She had just finished her term as teacher in the West Center School, Shelby County, and had been engaged to teach the coming term. Esquire Frye impaneled a coroner's jury, consisting of Ira Baird, C and G Sheffler, Linn Baird, Robert Hennigh and Robert Beck, who returned a verdict that the deceased came to her death by her own hand. Word comes to us by telephone this week that since the sad event, Mr. and Mrs. Shields Sanner have both been very ill and have required the constant care and attentions of Mr. and Mrs. Orris who are still with them and will remain with them for two or three weeks.

I R McKay has been found dead in bed. Isaac R McKay passes away at Springfield while serving as a United States Grand Jury member. Arrangements were made at once to bring the remains home. Mr. McKay had been in attendance at the United States Court as grand jurymen for several weeks. He visited home about 3 weeks ago and said at that time, he would be retained in Springfield until the middle of March. Mr. J C Wilson left Saturday evening via Pana and the B&O for Springfield, returning on Sunday morning.

via Clinton, by the Diamond Special, as escort to the remains which were taken at once to the family residence. The story of Mr. McKay's death as told by Mr. Wilson and substantiated at the coroner's inquest is brief but very sad. He was discovered in his room at the Clark House by the proprietor, Mr. Clark and a brother oddfellow, Mr. Shultz, about 9 AM o'clock Saturday morning in a sitting posture on the lounge, his head thrown back – dead. He had slept all night in the bed and had arisen in the morning, partly dressed himself, and doubtless feeling an attack of some sort coming on him, went to the lounge, sat down and expired. There could have been no suffering. His features in a peaceful repose. Isaac R McKay was a valued citizen of Moweaqua. As a member of the board of education, he was among its most earnest and zealous workers—his idea was to bring our public school up to the highest possible standard. He carried $2,000 life insurance in the Knights of Home. He was a man firm in his convictions of right and wrong, a devoted husband and loving father. For years his health has been poor, and for months at a time he was unable to follow his profession – that of carpenter. In politics, Mr. McKay was ever an ardent Republican and an earnest temperance advocate. Services were held from the M E Church on Monday afternoon at two o'clock. Rev Foxworthy, assisted by Rev Jo. B Rogers officiated. Details of the arrangements were in the hands of the Shelby Lodge I. O. O. F. of which he was a member. Isaac R McKay was born on a farm near Jacksonville, Illinois, 28 May 1842. He died in Springfield, Illinois, on 4 March 1899, aged 56 years, 9 months and 6 days. He was one of a family of seven children, three brothers and three sisters, all of whom are dead except two sisters, Mrs. Walter Humphrey of Moweaqua, and Mrs. Sophia Golden of Petersburg, Illinois, who with her son, attended the services. He was married to Miss Kate Cochran, 11 April 1871, at Milton, Indiana. To them were born five children, viz: Rose M, Jennie, Owen, Louie, and Jamie McKay. Two of whom, Owen and Louis, have preceded the father to the better land, leaving the wife, Rose M Day, Jennie and Jamie behind. He was finally mustered out in September 1865, having served his country four years and four months, and traveled while in the service of his country, a distance of 13,575 miles. He was engaged in several battles, among which was that of Shiloh, siege of Vicksburg, and with Gen Sherman on his great "March to the Sea." He was a member of the Grand Army of the Republic and of Shelby Lodge No. 274 I. O. O. F, having been a member since April 1884 and had served as secretary of the Lodge for several years, which office he held at the time of his death. He filled the office with honor to himself and with pleasure to his brethren. He was apparently well on Thursday and went to Yantisville on an errand for his mother. He ate a hearty supper that night but was taken sick after the family retired. All that loving hands and medical skill could do was done, but of no avail, and at 5 o'clock Saturday morning his spirit wended its way back to its Maker. Wednesday, 29 March 1899 issue, Moweaqua Call-Mail:

Uncle George Rice is dead. His spirit winged its flight into eternal immortality about 6 PM o'clock Saturday, 25 March 1899. For several years his health had been very poor but with the hands and hearts of loved ones tenderly administering to his every want, his declining days have been made comfortable and happy. He was a man ever devoted to his family, his name is stainless, his character is spotless. He dearly loved little children, and during his long illness his happiest moments seemed to be when surrounded by the little ones. He was a loving father and husband, a man always kindly and cordial with a cheerful smile and a warm grasp for all. Friday night he experienced a severe attack of La Grippe and despite all human aid sank rapidly, the end coming Saturday evening. The services were held this morning at the Christian tabernacle in the presence of a large and sympathetic congregation of relatives and friends. Arrangements were in the hands of the Moweaqua Lodge No 180, A F and A M of which Uncle George was a charter member. Elder A R Spicer assisted by other ministers of the city officiated. George Fallis Rice, son of William F and Julia Rice was born in Shelby County, Kentucky, 29 October 1823.

and died at his home in Moweaqua, Shelby County, Illinois, on 25 March 1899. His life pilgrimage thus compassing a period of 75 years, 4 months and 26 days. He was the third son of a family of twelve children. Two sisters only survive him, Mrs. Eliza Long of Stillwater, Oklahoma, and Mrs. Sarah Young of Williamsville, Illinois, the latter being present. In 1844, the family removed to Sangamon County, Illinois, from thence after a brief stay they made a permanent settlement at Mt Auburn, Christian Co, Illinois. Here the family spent a number of years. While here the subject of this sketch was married to Miss Racheal Adames. With his chosen companion he removed to Adames Grove and began farm life on the farm which is still the old homestead. To this union 5 children were born, one of whom survive him. Death invaded the home and his companion was taken away. His second marriage was to Miss Mary Jane Watson to which union four children were born, three of whom survive him. Here death again entered the home and his wife was called. His last companion, the wife who now survives him, has been a faithful companion for the last 32 years. To this union, five children were born, all of whom are living. About seven years ago, Uncle George (as he was familiarly known) retired from farm life and took up his residence in Moweaqua. Three years had scarcely passed when the dreaded La Grippe seized upon and left an influence from which he never recovered. Every effort was made for the recovery of his health. A trip to the west in 1895 proved a temporary relief, but not a cure. His late illness which proved fatal took on a serious form Thursday evening, 23 March 1899. The doctor was called and symptoms of a serious character were detected. He continued to grow worse until relieved by the messenger of death, which came Saturday evening at six-thirty PM. To all appearances, his last hours were painless and the moment of death one of ease. In the presence of friends and relatives, he lay back on his pillow and breathed his last, with a smile of apparent recognition to those at his side. Mr. Rice was united in the Methodist Church in early manhood while in Kentucky and was a faithful and zealous worker for many years. Later on he united with the Baptist Church to which he gave a loyal service until deprived of its services by reason of physical disability. For almost a half century, he has associated himself with the principles of "Free Masonry", in which order he was held in high esteem.

Lydia Ann Ludwig was born on the 9th day of November 1866, near Moweaqua, Illinois, and died 13 March 1899 at the home of her sister, Mrs. E H Bush of Prospect Park, California. About 5 years ago her health began to fail, she being afflicted with catarrh and throat trouble. All medical skill and care seemed of no avail to restore her health and in September 1894, she went to Valle Vista, California, thinking her health might improve. The first 2 years her health improved very much and her relatives and friends had hopes of her regaining her health again, but the third year of her stay in California, she grew worse and was brought home in the spring of 1897 with few hopes of getting any better. She soon began to improve and gained in weight and strength, and by fall she was so well that she returned to California, again going to Prospect Park, Los Angeles, California, but after her return, she did not improve much but seemed to gradually grow weaker until last September, from then on she grew worse rapidly and at times suffered intensely until death relieved her. Lydia Ann Ludwig was converted in her 15th year during the pastorate of E H Baab and was a consistent member of the German M E Church until her death. Services conducted from the M E Church by Revs Bollinger and Krock from Los Angeles. Interment in the Rosedale Cemetery in Los Angeles, California. Taken from the Middlebury (Vermont) Register: Died in Bridport, Vermont, on 23 March 1899, Mrs. Eva M Pratt, wife of Carlton J Barbour, aged about 25 years. In the passing away of Mrs. Carlton J Barbour, there was left us one of earth's best daughters, sisters and companions. She came from the west (Illinois) to visit relatives and found her health so much improved that after her mother's death, she returned to us. But the La Grippe only fixed the more dreaded consumption upon her and for the last few months it has been painfully evident to us all that she had not long to stay. She had been married but little over a year to one of our best young men and life had a pleasant, happy outlook, for she lived to be loved by all. But the outlook into the life beyond grew more and more attractive. The large attendance at her funeral hour but attested both the universal respect and sympathy to all concerned.

She grew rapidly worse Friday night and at an early hour, Saturday morning, her condition was considered hopeless. About noon on Saturday, the end came. The suddenness of it all was terrible, the family being almost prostrated with grief. Blanche was a lovely child, beautiful in character and pure of heart, beloved by her school mates and the idol of her

The body of an unknown one-arm man was found dead in the water under the Flat Branch railroad bridge yesterday afternoon. He was a cheap jewelry and lead pencil peddler, and it is evident that he committed suicide. His coat and cap lay on the bank. There was nothing on his person by which to identify him. He had walked into the water from the east side of the bridge, into about three feet of water under that structure and then lay face downward, in which position he was found. The remains were turned over to the Christian County authorities for an inquest held in accordance with the foregoing facts. The coroner of Christian County came over last night from Taylorville, empanelled a jury of Christian County citizens, viewed the remains at Stine's undertaking office and adjourned over in Christian County to render a inquest decision.

Another old citizen of Moweaqua and an early settler of Shelby County goes to his eternal rest – Uncle Zealy Snell. At 6:15 o'clock, Monday, May 15th, 1899, at his home in the east part of town, Uncle Zealy Snell surrounded by his loved ones, painlessly and gently breathed his last. His death was not unexpected for he had been rapidly failing for several days, the end being hastened by a large tumor that had formed on the back of his neck and from which at times he suffered much. About 18 months ago, in November 1897, Uncle Zealy and his good wife celebrated their golden wedding, having married in 1847. Uncle Zealy Snell came to this country just after the close of the Civil War and few men were better known than he. His death will be regretted by a host of friends. He united with the Methodist Church in 1855, and for 44 years has proved a faithful and consistent citizen.

He was the only child of Mr. and Mrs. Wm J Clark of this city and was, indeed, a devoted child to his parents, and a loving and affectionate husband and father. A wife and four little children survive him. Services were held on Sunday morning at the Salem M E

Church, and so large was the attendance that not one half of those present could gain admission to the Church. Rev Foxworthy of this city officiated. The deceased was in many respects, a genius. He had invented and patented several useful articles, and was beginning to reap the fruits of his labor when death called him to his eternal home. He was possessed of a wide range of general knowledge and a man with whom it was a pleasure to converse. At all time he was quiet and unobtrusive, and his universal popularity was fully attested by the high regard with which all who knew him spoke of him. Charles Scott Clark was born in Flat Branch Township, Shelby County, Illinois, on 27 January 1866. He was taken sick with lung fever on 1 May 1899, and died at 3:30 o'clock PM, Friday evening, 12 May 1899, aged 33 years, 3 months and 15 days. He was united in marriage to Maggie M Widick on 12 September 1892. He was then notified to mend his ways or the punishment would be repeated in worse form. David went to Chebanse the next morning, still bleeding with tar and feathers in his hair, to consult officers. It is alleged David has beaten and ill-treated his family. His wife left him recently and has a divorce suit pending. Lew Bullock was called to the bedside of his brother last week at Union Star, Missouri, who was very low with consumption, and has since died.

Lew Bullock returned home on Friday from Union Star, Missouri, where he attended at the bedside and then the funeral of his brother, John W Bullock who died of consumption. The deceased was thirty-nine years of age and leaves a wife and five children.

At an early hour yesterday morning the mutilated bodies of a man and boy were found on the Illinois central track just north of town near the section house. They had evidently been killed by a northbound freight as portions of their bodies and clothes were found strewn along the track for 200 yards. Pinned to the coat of one was the picture of a beautiful girl. How they met so violent a death can only be conjectured. In the pocket of one of the victims was found a letter signed by A W Welch, 3200 Park Avenue, and also 91 cents in change and a photograph of a young lady. Agent Hut at Walker describes the men perfectly saying he had a long talk with them and that one was named McClaren and the other Welch, and that he thought they were both from Keyesport, Illinois. They said they were going to Moweaqua. Much mystery surrounds this horrible affair. The men were killed about 10:30 AM by a freight train and it was the first that passed after they left Walker. Evidences on the engine of this train show that it did the work, but how? Could the men have been murdered and laid on the track or could they have been asleep on the track? O C Welch and son, G N Welch came up from Keyesport this morning, and identified the remains as Virgil Welch and Edward McClaren, the former a son of O C Welch and the latter a son-in-law. The remains will be interred here. There is much suppressed excitement in this community and a general feeling seems to prevail that the men were murdered and thrown on to the track.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Jack Myers of Prairieton last week, a girl.

The community was shocked last Wednesday by the sudden death of Mrs. Otto Sands, living on the H Courtright place, who dropped in an unconscious state and did not regain consciousness but died in a short time. The funeral was held at Antioch on Thursday afternoon in the presence of an immense crowd conducted by Elder Groves.

The bride is related to the several Hudson families of Moweaqua. Ceremony will be performed at 8 PM on 14 June 1899.

A letter recently received in this city from O C Welch, the father of one of the boys who was killed last week, clearly demonstrates that the gentleman does not concur in the general opinion that the boys were murdered. He seems to think they fell asleep on the track. It is strange that two intelligent and sober young men should fall asleep on a railroad track, and it is equally strange that seven trains would pass over their bodies before they were discovered.

A little child of H Adams was buried last Saturday. (Prairieton news)

Services were held on Saturday morning from the Baptist Church in the presence of a large and sympathetic congregation of relatives and friends. Rev Jo. B Rogers officiated. Pall bearers were Wm L Morris, John Clark, Wallace Gregory, M H Miller, Ralph Ayars and Oscar Adamson. On Tuesday, the 6th day of June he was in town feeling remarkably well, he went home and took dinner, and in a short time complained of feeling bad and rapidly sank away, dying Thursday morning, 8 June 1899, a little before 9 o'clock AM. Since Wednesday last, Miss Rebecca Coulter has been lingering between life and death. Tuesday, she submitted to the removal of a fibroid tumor and the operation was most successful. Wednesday she suffered a severe relapse and Thursday she was better, Friday and Saturday, much worse. At one time life was despaired of, her condition thought hopeless. Sunday she rallied and reports since were most favorable, until last night, she suffered a severe relapse and died this morning shortly after one o'clock. Her demise has cast a shadow of gloom over the entire community. The remains were brought home from Decatur this morning. Arrangements are pending.

Shortly after 8 o'clock PM last evening at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry F Day in this city, Ernest J Kilborn and Bessie Eleanor Day were united in marriage in the presence of a large assemblage of relatives and friends. Preceding the couple were little Miss Marie Homrighous and Master Leslie Lynne, the ribbon bearers, each of whom unfolded a band of white ribbon extending from the foot of the stairs between which the bride and groom walked to the alcove in the south room where the ceremony occurred. Elder J W Kilborn of Washington, Illinois, and Rev J Foxworthy officiated. The bride is the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry F Day, a handsome and accomplished girl whose nobility of character has won for her a host of admiring friends. Born and reared in our midst, she is typically a Moweauqua girl, a graduate of our high school, a musician of exceptional vocal ability, her life has become a component part of our social atmosphere. It is a pleasure to learn that Bessie, now Mrs. E J Kilborn, will not leave us, but will remain a permanent resident of Moweauqua. The groom is an earnest and progressive young business man whose indomitable will power and hustling proclivities are rapidly bringing him to the front in the business worlds. He has a happy faculty of making and keeping friends. Following the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Kilborn received the congratulations of family and friends, and guests were then served with delicious refreshments following which entertainment of games and music was pleasantly presented. The groom has provided a lovely little home in which to take his bride, and after the wedding festivities were at an end, they repaired at once to the Pontius property in the south part of town which will be their permanent residence.

The death of Miss Rebecca Drake Coulter has created a feeling of profound and sincere regret throughout the entire community. Perhaps no girl in Moweaqua possessed a wider acquaintance than the deceased. For seventeen long years she had been a faithful and efficient clerk, commencing in 1882 with the firm of Aydelott and Corrington and of late years with Aydelott and Haslam. A member of the M E Church choir, she was ever prompt and faithful, a member of the Epworth League, she was ever present to assume all duties assigned, an efficient worker in the Methodist Sunday school, she was always found in her place. Her crowning glory was her love and devotion for her mother – to her the acme of life was her home, and with a daughter's gentle care and tender love, she made that home a heaven for her dear old mother. Her loss to that home can only be realized in the anguish of a broken-hearted mother. The untimely death of Miss Coulter has already been noted in these columns. It was absolutely necessary that an operation be performed if she would live. That operation was difficult and dangerous – it was successfully performed, but the shock and general results were more than she could bear. Services were held at the Methodist Church on Thursday afternoon at 3 o'clock in the midst of a vast throng of sympathetic friends. Rev Foxworthy officiated; the burial was in the city Cemetery west of town. Rebecca Drake Coulter was born near Newton-Hamilton, Mifflin County, Pennsylvania, on 30 January 1863, and died on 28 June 1899 in Illinois. She was aged 36 years, 4 months and 29 days. She was the youngest of a family of ten children, six of whom with the 'dear old mother' are on this side of the stream, and now four with the father, are on the other side. In 1877 she came with her parents to Illinois and settled about five miles southeast of Moweaqua, but shortly after they moved into the village which has been her home ever since. In the early spring of 1882, her father died, and she at once began to be a bread-winner for the family by engaging as a dry goods saleslady for C H Bridges and in a few months, he moving away, she engaged with Aydelott and Corrington, continuing with them and the succeeding firm of Aydelott and Haslam for 17 years. During all this time she has been a model of industry and faithfulness in her daily life and by her cheerful and obliging manner has succeeded in winning the love and respect of a very large circle of friends, and we feel safe in saying that no one could be more missed than 'Miss 'Becca' will be. For more than 17 years she and her mother have lived together by themselves and very few have ever been her equal in caring for and loving her aged mother. The day before the operation she wrote in her diary, "The waiting is dreadful but the time is drawing nearer and the Lord is with me." The next morning she again wrote - "Almost time for the operation, I am ready. May the Lord's will be done." During one of her sinking spells and when all thought her dying, she called to her sister, Mrs. Stine, to her side and said, "I thought I would get well, but it is all for the best. I want you to take good care of mother. I want her to live with you. Good-bye". Card of Thanks signed by Mrs. Mary Coulter.

At an early age she united with the Lutheran Church where she lived a devote Christian life until later in life when her husband and children joined the M E Church, south, and she put her name and work with them. She was the sunshine of her home, where she spent nearly all of her time, being for several years, an invalid. She was a devoted wife, a fond mother and loving friend. Though she suffered intensely, she took a deep interest in all the surroundings of her home. Her greatest happiness was to see her family happy and prosperous. She worshiped her children and said she only prayed to get well that she might do more for them.

Wednesday, 26 July 1899 issue. Moweaqua Call-Mail:

Word comes to us by telephone this morning that Miss Maud Fortner was the victim of a gasoline stove explosion at Bethany yesterday and that she died in horrible agony last night. She was attempting to fill the gasoline stove while it was burning. She is a relative of the Fortner family of this city and well-known here.

Thursday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock the Methodist Episcopal Church of this city was the scene of a very beautiful wedding. Miss Lulia M Coffman and Mr. Ralph Waldo Snyder. The bride is the accomplished daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J T Coffman and has been a resident of Moweaqua for over 5 years. From childhood she has developed into sweet and gentle womanhood among us. A bright and ambitious scholar. she was valedictorian of the class of '95 that graduated from the Moweaqua high school. She is a girl greatly admired and beloved by all those who know her. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. V Snyder, Jr and the junior member of the banking house of V Snyder and Co. Born and reared here, a graduate of the Moweaqua high school and salutatorian of the class of '95, he has ever held the high esteem of the community at large. Retiring from the sanctuary the bridal party were driven at once to the residence of V Snyder, Jr where they received the warmest congratulations of many friends. (Not copied in this article, the wedding decorations, list of guests and additional information on their personalities) Monday morning, Eva Dean, another member of the Dean family died of typhoid fever. Mrs. Dean and a son are dangerously ill with the disease. Mr. Dean alone has thus far escaped, and it requires all his strength and will power to bear up under his burden of woe. Mrs. Wm Coulter, a neighbor living near, had been giving them much assistance, caring for them and cooking for them. She too was taken ill with the fever and her condition is considered serious. A number of persons have interested themselves in the matter, and Monday went out to the Dean farm about two miles south of town and erected tents in which the sick people were temporarily placed while the house was thoroughly cleaned and disinfected. Everything possible has been and is being done to assist the family and stamp out the disease. It seems to be the general impression that the disease originated in the family from the use of the well water on the place. The well is so situated on the hill that its bottom is about on a line with the bed of the creek, and the water must be seapy and because of decaying vegetation, very vile. The funeral of Miss Eva Dean occurred on Tuesday morning from the home, brief services only being held, and the remains were interred in the Masonic Cemetery. Yesterday morning, Minnie Ney, the 13-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C L Ney, was taken quite ill with typhoid fever. She had spent the day at the Dean's family, had helped about the house and drank from the well. Her condition is not thought to be dangerous as yet.

Wednesday, 2 August 1899 issue, Moweaqua Call-Mail:

Earl and Merl united. After a lingering illness of several weeks, Earl, the remaining twin boy of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hudson passed away yesterday afternoon shortly before two o'clock. The disease was precisely the same as that which took little Merl several weeks ago – cholera infantum. (Note: in the previous obituary, the child's name was given as Earl; this article also gives the name as 'Earl'. Do not know which obituary is correct; I have copied it verbatim as in the Call-Mail). Every effort was made to save the little darling, but without avail. For days its sweet little innocent spirit lingered between Heaven and earth until nature succumbed to the inevitable. The death of these two little ones, once so bright and handsome and healthy, is peculiarly sad, and the hearts of the entire community go out to the bereaved parents. The funeral will be held from the M E Church this afternoon at 3 o'clock.

After a lingering illness of many months, the malady being consumption, David Bays passed peacefully into the infinite on Wednesday afternoon of last week. Services were held from the Christian tabernacle on Thursday after noon in the presence of a large concourse of relatives and friends. Rev A R Spicer officiating and interment was in the Cemetery west of town. Death has come and taken from our midst a brother whom we all loved. David Bays, the son of Neul and Sarah Bays was born in Christian County, Illinois on 19 January 1873. On 22 September 1894, he was married to Miss Annie Easley and to this union, were born four children, two boys and two girls, all of whom are living and remain to mourn their loss. David was the fourth of a family of six children and the first to depart to his long home. Carrie Ann, Emma, Jennie, Lizzie and Josiah Bays are the surviving members of the family. The last year of his life was spent in Moweaqua. He was taken sick about two years ago, and died on 26 July 1899 at 3:30 PM of consumption at age 26 years, 6 months and 7 days. He was a constant sufferer from the first and never murmured, but patiently awaited God's time. He often said, "If I could only live to help raise my children", but when asked if he was ready to die, his answer was always 'yes'. He was a dutiful son, kind brother, loving husband and father. He always had a smile and kind word for everybody. Despite constant suffering for months, he was cheerful and bore up with fortitude and hope. At his last moments, he said 'I am gone' and bade goodbye to his wife and sister who were at his bedside.

Mrs. Gabriella Smith, suddenly died at her home at Alto Pass aged 69 years. She was married 50 years and was the mother of 12 children.

William T Shefter, died at Bloomington aged 83 years. He served his country as a soldier longer perhaps than any other veteran in Illinois. He was a soldier in the Florida war against the Seminoles 1835 to 1842, in the war with Mexico, and in the Civil War. He was a member of the Wm T Sherman post, G A R of Bloomington.

Mrs. Jennie McDonald Wilson, one of the oldest residents of Morgan County died at her home in Murrayville. She was 84 years of age.

Capt Samuel Welton, aged 92 years, one of the oldest pioneers in central Illinois, died. He had lived in Macoupin County for over half a century, and was widely known and highly respected. He leaves a widow four years his junior.

From the July number of the 'Sample Case' a little magazine that is the official organ of the order of the United Commercial Travelers of America, we take the following article concerning a popular Moweaqua boy: William La Motte Day began making trouble in this world at Moweaqua, Illinois, on 27 April 1863. His mother is an authority for the statement that he was a very hard child to manage, and his wife says she can't see that he has improved any in this respect. (There 'are others' outside the family who will cheerfully endorse this statement). His first experience in business life was in the father's general merchandise store at Moweaqua. Here as a boy he learned to sand the sugar, water the vinegar, and attend early morning prayers in the good old democratic way, and these valuable precepts which he thus absorbed early in life, have never left him. In March 1879, he started out to seek his fortune in that promised land known as the Golden West. The second day after landing in Arkansas City, he was at work for Deer, Mansur & Co in their shipping department. He remained with them for one year and then entered the employ of the Trumbull, Reynolds & Allen Seed Co where he continued until 1882 when he left them to become a traveler for the Parlin and Overdorff Co (P&O Co), wholesale dealers in farm implements and vehicles. Mr. Day was the first traveler employed by the P&O Co when they opened their branch home in Kansas City in 1882. The fact that he has been with them ever since on the same territory, and that he has built up and maintains the largest and most successful business in his line on this territory, together with the fact that his employers esteem him very highly, not only as a trade getter and profit maker for the concern, but because his judgment and advice upon all matters pertaining to their vast business in the West, is considered most valuable by them, is the best evidence of the success that he has achieved in the business world. Mr. Day's record in 'U S T'ism' is certainly a brilliant one. He was one of the first to take an interest in this organization in Kansas, and it was through his personal effort that a Council (No 36) was organized in his home town of Concordia on 14 May 1892. (Portion of the article describes the Council and Mr. Day's personality; not copied in this article). A sketch of this man would be far from complete were it lacking in a brief view of his home life, for in nothing is a man's real nature so truly exposed as in his family life. Mr. Day was married at Waterville, Kansas, on 15 December 1896, to Miss Grace Hinman. To use the language of the gentleman himself, "Immediately after our marriage, we held an election. My wife was elected president and I was elected vice president of our newly established household. I have never been able to call another election, and in fact, am perfectly willing to continue to serve in my present capacity as long as I can have so capable an officer at the head of the administration." Mr. Day has been favored by fortune in many things, but in nothing has she so blessed him as in the charming woman she bestowed upon him for a life companion. A beautiful woman in everything that goes to make a woman beautiful, she has made for him a home that is the ideal of which that most significant word implies. The family circle is completed by two exceedingly bright and winsome children, a boy and a girl, who give great promise of becoming exact reproductions of their authors, having been the moving spirit in it.

Born to Robt Orris and wife on 23 July 1899, a daughter. (Prairie Home)

Wednesday, 9 August 1899 issue, Moweaqua Call-Mail:

Margaret Wilhelmina Ney was born in Flat Branch Township, Shelby County, Illinois, on 31 July 1886, and died 1 August 1899, aged 13 years and one day. She united with Fame United Evangelical Church on 15 December 1895, under the pastorate of Rev C W Davis. She was an earnest Christian from early years and to her last gave evidence of her confidence in God. During the illness of about 12 days which terminated in her death, she suffered greatly, but bore it all in patience and a willingness to submit to His will. She leaves a father, mother and one sister to await the summons to meet her, while a host of friends sadly look to the place she once did fill. Services were held at the home where she spent the days of her girlhood. MEMORIES FROM MOWEAQUA
VOLUME 4
Excerpts from The Moweaqua Call-Mail

* 1900 *

A NEW CENTURY!!

Wednesday, 3 January 1900 issue, Moweaqua Call-Mail:

After a lingering illness of many months with a complication of diseases, Clara M Hannah Schumacher, infant child of Mr. and Mrs. Wm Schumacher, age 7 months, died Wednesday morning of last week. The funeral services were held from the Catholic Church, Friday afternoon at two o'clock in the presence of a large assembly. When the beautiful little white casket was brought into the Church, it was met in the vestibule by Father Maurer, the officiating priest. The remains were laid to rest in the new Cemetery north of town.

A wedding with a tinge of romance took place in Decatur on Monday wherein Miss Clara Hudson of this city and Mr. Frank Stout of Maynard, Iowa, became man and wife. The bride is the daughter of Joshua Hudson and is a very pleasant young lady who has made her home with the family of Thomas Hudson, Sr for several years. The groom is in the poultry business in Iowa. He arrived here on Saturday and it is alleged he had never before seen his bride to be until that day, all their courtship having been by correspondence. The young people were married on Monday by Rev Penhallegon in Decatur and left at once for their home in Iowa.

This occurred on the day set for the selling of Snell's real estate by Snell's guardian to pay debts in the amount of $7,500 as ordered by the County court. Mrs. Snell's attorneys contended that the sale of Snell's property at this time would endanger the interest of their client. Recently Snell dismissed the proceedings of his suit for divorce and refused to pay the $100 per month alimony ordered by the court. Thereupon Mrs. Snell brought suit for adequate maintenance.

George Stout returned home on Tuesday from a trip out of town, and he was not alone either, but brought with him a young lady who rumor says is his bride. He has not informed us, however, whether this is so or not, consequently we do not state it as a fact. If it is so thought, we hasten to extend congratulations and wish them bon voyage over the matrimonial seas. Later: Since the above was put into type, we learn that it is a fact and that the young lady's name was Miss Clara Hudson of Moweaqua, Illinois. The bride we are not acquainted with, but George is a steady, industrious young man, possessed of those qualities that will attain success and the young lady chosen by him as a life partner, will we believe, find him the same in after life as he is in youth. He was picked up unconscious and lingered until 10:30 o'clock AM yesterday morning when he died. The dead man was about 36 years old, weighed 220 pounds and was married. For years he had been addicted to the excessive use of liquor. Last Wednesday he was brought to St Louis and placed in the sanitarium, suffering from acute alcoholism. He was assigned to a room, and a special guard placed over him to see that in his delirium he did not injure himself. His condition rapidly improved, and it was hoped that by Monday he would have recovered. Friday night, House slept peacefully until one of the slats in his bed dropped to the floor, the noise awakened him. He jumped out of bed shouting,

"They're after me again". He grabbed the slat and threatened to demolish everything in the room. House saw Gerald Gehring rushing to him to assist him, lay his fears and quiet him, but House dealt him a blow with the slat that knocked him down. Then House leaped through the window of the room, carrying away sash and shutter, which fell to the pavement below with the deranged man. Doctor Barton found Gehring on the floor, the demolished window told where House was. He was picked up and taken upstairs, and every effort was made to save his life, his injuries were of such a nature that recovery was impossible. After lingering unconscious for eight hours, he died. Gehring received a scalp wound from the blow delivered by House with the slat.

Miss Bauberger who is a very pretty girl came down on the afternoon train from Decatur Thursday, reaching here about 15 minutes before his death. The scene between the heart broken girl and her dying lover was very affecting. Mr. Miller never regained consciousness. How he was stuck will forever remain a mystery. The remains were removed at once to Stine's undertaking establishment and the County coroner notified at Shelbyville. The verdict was that the deceased came to his death by a blow on the head, supposed to have been inflicted by a passing locomotive or train on the Illinois Central railroad. Remains were held until Saturday morning, awaiting advices from relatives in Pennsylvania, but nothing having been heard, they were interred in the Cemetery west of town.

A mystery surrounds the case. It is claimed a suitor for Miss Mary Bauberger's hand was apprised of the latter's coming and that through jealousy, he killed Miller. Miller's home was in Reading, Pennsylvania. Officers and bloodhounds are on the trail, and it is expected a capture will result before morning. Miss Bauberger has made no statement.

Wednesday evening, 25 July 1900, at 8:30 o'clock at the Christian Church, Dr Fred D Pratz and Miss Edna F Rice will be united in marriage. Cards have been issued with the foregoing announcement.

An accident occurred at the coal shaft Thursday morning, 5 July 1900, resulting in the death of Charles Karloski, an aged German coal miner. About ten o'clock, Anton Guzy, one of the drivers went into the room where Karloski worked for the purpose of hauling out his car and found Karloski partially buried beneath a mass of fallen slate. The boy immediately summoned assistance and Karloski was extricated when it was found that he was fatally injured. He died before he was brought to the top. Just what caused the fall of slate, and he happened to be caught under it can only be surmised. It was thought that when he made a shot the day before he loosened up the props in the room, then when he went in to clean up the slate fell in on him. Services were conducted from the residence of Ed Karloski on Friday afternoon in the presence of a large congregation. Rev Golden, pastor of the Christian Church officiated. Interment was in the Miner's Lot at the west Cemetery, and the last sad rites of burial were performed by the Union at the grave of their departed brother.

Mrs. Nancy Denton of Pleak received word on Friday that her daughter, Mrs. George South, who lives in Iowa has died.

Frank Miner went to Moweaqua Wednesday and brought back with him, John Vaverick and Mary Gjondia, who will remain in charge of Sheriff Miner until their trial in the County court next Monday. This is a peculiar case. All parties to the case are Russian Poles. The men are miners. Some time ago, Mary, who cannot speak or understand a word of English, had trouble with her husband and applied for divorce in the Christian County Circuit court at Taylorville. She employed an attorney of Assumption and says she paid him ten dollars for his services. She claims that she appeared in court, and after the trial was told by her attorney that the divorce had been granted, and that she was free to marry again. In two or three weeks she did so. She was married to John Vavrick (Note spelling is given as 'Vavrick' and 'Vaverick' in same article). A little later, her former husband discovered that the divorce had not been granted, and had the pair, who were living together in the innocent belief that everything was all right, arrested on a charge of adultery. Both the parties arrested say they didn't intentionally do wrong, and they believed the woman was divorced. This seems reasonable, too, from the fact that their marriage was publicly announced with no endeavor to keep quiet. They don't appear to be bad people. Vavrick is a fine looking stout fellow who served Uncle Sam for eighteen months in the Philippines. Both parties appear to be about 40 years of age. (Shelbyville Union)

Early Monday morning while Charles T Marshall was en route to this city in his buggy from his home east of town, he met with a very serious, if not fatal accident. It seems that while driving along he stood up in his buggy to get a better view of the damage done to the fields of corn by Saturday's storm, and a sudden jerk of the horse caused him to fall headlong forward between the horse and the buggy. He was found in a very serious condition two hours later by Louis Cox and taken to his home. He is said to be badly bruised and tramped by the horse, and at this writing his life hangs in fragile balance.

Later: Word was received last evening that Mr. Marshall died from the injuries sustained. He was a member of the Royal Arch Masons of Shelbyville; the Blue Lodge of Macon and the Masons will have charge of the funeral. He was about 60 years of age, and leaves a wife and family.

Mrs. B A Richhart is dead. A telegram received in this city Sunday evening from Crowley, Louisiana, by Wm Z Richhart from his brother, B A Richhart, saying that Mrs. Richhart was at the point of death. Another telegram was received on Tuesday morning announcing that she was dead, and adding that they would at once start north with the remains, and that the funeral would be held at Locust Grove. There was no intimation conveyed in the telegrams as to the cause of her death. Just at what time and at what hour the remains will arrive is not known, but it is thought they will come home on the nine o'clock train this evening. Coming as it does, so closely following the death of his son, Russell Richhart, this is a most sorrowful blow to Mr. Richhart and in his hour of direct affliction, he and the children have the warmest heartfelt sympathy of a host of friends here. Mrs. Richhart was one of the noblest and best women the writer ever knew. She was just as nearly perfect in highest nobility of character as is the lot of humanity to attain.

Wednesday, 18 July 1900 issue, Moweaqua Call-Mail:

The remains of Mrs. B A Richhart arrived in this city on Wednesday evening from Louisiana, accompanied by Mr. Richhart and after a brief stop at the residence of Wm Z Richhart, were taken out that evening to the home of Grandma Sarah Stump, her mother. At eleven o'clock the following day, services were held and interment made at Locust Grove in the presence of an enormous assembly of sorrowing relatives and friends. Pallbearers were John L Gregory, Jacob Longenbach, H Bridgman, J H Kirker, V Snyder, Jr; Hardin Jordan, and Philip Standley. Services preached by Rev E J Durham of Macon. (additional writing about the services, choir, floral tributes, not copied in this book.) She was a faithful and devoted wife, a loving mother and daughter, and a warm and steadfast friend. Ida Belle Stump, daughter of Jacob and Sarah Stump, was born on 31 January 1866, near Locust Grove Church, Shelby County, Illinois. She united with the United Brethren Church at the age of 15, and remained a faithful and active member until death. She was an active worker in the Women's Foreign Missionary Society and W. C. T. Y. She was united in marriage with B A Richhart on 5 April 1886. To this union were born two children, Bessie and Rolla, both of whom survive her. She and her family moved to near Crowley, Louisiana, in February 1899, and where she died on 9 July 1900, after a sickness of but a few days at age 34 years, 5 months and 5 days. During her married life she was a devoted and affectionate mother to six children, one of whom, Russel Richhart, preceded her to the better land in October 1899, less than a year ago. The other five children remain to mourn her loss. Besides these, she leaves an aged mother, four sisters and three brothers. Her death is a sad blow to the many friends she made during her short residence in Louisiana, also to the host of friends and relatives in Illinois. (Note: This obit is hard to follow; mentions two children, Bessie and Rolla born to B A Richhart and wife, and then states she was the mother to six children, five remaining to mourn her, but no mention of their names. Was this family raising other children that were not born to them? Obit copied as written in Call-Mail)

Another beautiful spirit has passed through the value of the shadow of death. Friday morning, 13 July 1900, about ten o'clock, Grandma Catherine Gregory passed away, aged 74 years, 4 months and 27 days. For several days she had been very low and the end was not unexpected. Since the death of her beloved husband, Washington Gregory, about eighteen months ago, she had been an invalid, and for the last sixteen months, she had been confined the greater part of the time to her bed. During this period she resided on the west side with her sister, Mrs. Lizzie Polk, where she was the recipient of every care and attention from her children and grandchildren. Her life was one of earnest and practical Christian experience, and death came to her sweetly and calmly as the end of one whose mortal course was finished and whose spiritual life was to begin. Services held Sunday morning from the Baptist Church, Rev Jo B Rogers officiating. The beautiful casket, tastefully draped in drooping vines, bearing a mass of white roses and other

It was thought by the many friends of Oscar Corley that he would ultimately survive the severe accident he sustained several days since. His physicians said that his limb was mending just as nicely as was possible. But it seems that the blood poisoning which set in just after his injury was never successfully eradicated from his system, and the end finally came on Thursday night with death directly resulting from a hemorrhage. Oscar was a quiet inoffensive gentleman, a devoted husband and a good father. He was a man of whom no unkind word could be justly spoken. At the time of his accident he was returning from Decatur where he had just closed a deal with Mrs. Gavin to buy the little farm on which he lived. Yesterday Deputy Clerk Jake Zimmer was almost stunned by the presence at his desk of a youthful (?) lover aged just 81 years who desired the proper legal papers to permit him to marry one Elizabeth Ensley, a comely maiden of 60. The old gentleman was somewhat weak in the knees, but strong in his desire to commit matrimony. He was waited on with pleasure, but it was noticed that his 'X' mark was necessary as he could not write his name. His name was spelled as "Stiders" instead of "Stigers". Not to be delayed any longer than could be helped, a message was sent to the clerk asking what to do in the matter. He didn't want to wait, not a single hour, did this ardent lover.

Born on Friday, 2 November 1900, to Mr. and Mrs. Will Davis, a daughter. (Obed news) Rolla Stump died at the home of his parents near Obed, on Sunday, 28 October 1900. His death was quite a surprise to his many friends and schoolmates. Rolla has been attending school all fall until last week when he remained at home on account of not feeling well. As he complained but little, his condition was not thought to be serious. Saturday night before he died Sunday morning, he seemed his usual jovial mood. At school where he was a favorite among the pupils and well liked by his teacher, he will be greatly missed. Rolla was a studious boy in the schoolroom and upon the playground he was always making fun for his playmates. (Obed news – too late for last week's publication)

Bright Bridgewater and Stella Coffman were married in Decatur Wednesday of last week. (Allenboro news)

The Call-Mail made an error last week in regard to James Webb's death. It should have read James A Webb, not James W Webb, and Mrs. Webb's name prior to her marriage was Miss Eva Wagner, not Miss Marie Wagner as we published it. We regret the error and are glad to state that Mrs. Webb is now in a fair way to complete recovery.

The death of Mrs. Sam J Jacobs occurred at her home Saturday afternoon, 4 November 1900. She was a gentle and loving wife and mother, and within the radiance of her benign and Christian influence was reared a family of splendid children, who will realize only too fully the loss of an affection and loving mother. Services were held Sunday afternoon from the family residence near Radford, and the attendance was very large. Rev Van Evra, Pastor of Fame, assisted by Rev Foxworthy officiated.

She was raised in the Lutheran Church, but in the winter of 1869, with her husband, became members of the M E Church of which they remained faithful members until this past spring when, for convenience, they united with the Fame United Evangelical Church. Her faith was founded upon the Rock and frequently during her late sickness gave expressions of her Hope in such words as, "I know that my Redeemer lives; He is ever with me". Her only regret was the leaving of her loved ones. Remaining to mourn, a living husband and six children, Mrs. Hattie Thurn, Henry, Mrs. Emma John Hardin, George W, Stella and Alta. Four children having preceded her home. Also two sisters, Mrs. Rose of Moweaqua and Mrs. Rhinehart of Clayton, Indiana.

Saturday evening at Blue Mound, Thos J Morris, aged 55 years, a Wabash employee was instantly killed while at work beneath a freight car, repairing the trucks. She was induced to go to John Martz's Wednesday evening to administer wants to the sick, with the understanding that she would be brought home early Thursday morning, but John, her husband, failed to arise from his slumbers early, so she was compelled to stay until about eleven o'clock. When she was brought home by her husband, she was only to find the house filled with friends and relatives and a table loaded down with the rich blessing soft life, all awaiting her arrival. The rarest experience that has felled to the lot of Judge Righter occurred this afternoon, a peculiar wedding. John Vavrck and Mary Gondla, two natives of Polish Austria, but now residents of Moweaqua, procured a marriage license from Clerk Zimmer and went directly to Judge Righter's room to have the marriage solemnized. Weddings are almost a daily occurrence in the courthouse, but this was somewhat different from the ordinary. Neither of the principals could talk or understand the English language, and had not an interpreter come to his rescue, the Judge would have been in a bad fix. This interpreter, Mike Potsick, did a good job of it and repeated the words of that solemn marriage vow after Judge Righter and after it was all understood by the couple, they nodded their heads, instead of using the English words, "I promise". It was a rather humorous situation, however, and created a good deal of sport for on-lookers. This is the couple that was in jail here some months ago on a charge of bigamy. The woman was married before and believing that she had a divorce from the Christian County circuit court, she married this man Vavrck. Her lack of knowledge of America and American law got her into the trouble. At this term of Shelby County Circuit Court, she secured the divorce all 'OK' and this wedding followed. The little crowd assembled, almost paralyzed with fright and grief, carried the lifeless remains to the boy's home, and at once notified the county coroner. After a lingering illness of several months with cancer of the stomach, Jacob Shride's spirit winged its flight at 2 o'clock AM, Saturday morning. His death was a sudden blow to his friends as he seemed to be getting along very nicely till a day or two before his death. Just one week previous to his death while on the way from the store in a cart, he had a very narrow escape, for a man in his weakened condition. While driving along the road west of here a horse along the roadside took after the little colt which he had following, which caused the nag which he was driving to wheel around quite suddenly. As she did so, he got off the cart, then the nag started to run, and ran some little distance, dragging and jerking him along. Yet he held to the lines and with help, succeeded in checking the speed of his horse, but he was very weak from the exertion. This probably hastened his death. Services were held at Little Flock church on Sunday afternoon, conducted by Rev Ferris of the U B church of Obed. He was buried by the M. W. A.'s of which he was a member and carried a $2,000 policy. Pallbearers were Charles Stump, Jacob Longenbach, Jesse Pierce, Sam'l Longenbaugh, Mr. Higginbotham and Johnny Beckett. Sick and despondent and perhaps tired of life, which had dragged out almost to the century mark for her, Mrs. Lydia Gregory, one of the oldest residents of Peoria county, committed suicide at her home near Trivoli. The strychnine which she used had been purchased several years ago and had been in an old trunk in the house during all of that time. It was not thought that the suicide was long mediated. Mrs. Gregory had been ill about two weeks and in her naturally enfeebled condition, she had become very despondent. She was the widow of David Gregory, a wealthy and prominent farmer. She was born in 1808 and located in Peoria county in 1835, having lived on the same farm, the old Gregory homestead near Trivoli, for 66 years.

Another doctor said his trouble was cancer of the liver. It was Mr.

Shride's desire that after death, his body should be examined to see what his real trouble was. Accordingly, Dr Thompson of this city and Dr Gregory of Obed, were called Saturday afternoon to make a post mortem examination. They found that death was caused by a perforation of the stomach, due to a large mixed tumor that surrounded the lower end of the stomach, almost closing the outlet. (Shelbyville Union)

Pleak news: At the home of Mr. and Mrs. J L Gregory on Monday evening, 13 May 1901, a pleasant surprise was given, the occasion being Arthur H Gregory's birthday. On a farm near Bloomington, yesterday, 12 May 1901, Merritt Chism killed his wife. As she was starting to church in a buggy with two little daughter of Chism, her step-daughters, a quarrel arose. Chism jumped into the buggy and with a knife, cut his wife's face and neck. He then threw her into the road, jumped upon her and stabbed her repeatedly. Her son, Harvey Freeland, aged 12 years, struck at Chism with a ball bat. Chism wrested the bat from the lad and struck his wife three times with it, smashing her skull and bashing out her brains. Then he tried again to stab the woman. Harvey caught the hand in which was the knife. Chism drew the knife through Harvey's hand, almost severing the fingers and stabbed Harvey in the arm. Chism then fled across the fields and tried to drown himself in a well. The water was not deep enough, and he climbed out and went to the house of a son where he tried to kill himself with a revolver. Her parents, husband, three sisters and one brother have answered the same summons and await her coming home. Wednesday, 21 August 1901 issue, Moweaqua Call-Mail:

Mining Accident - John Cairns Loses Life. Last Saturday morning at about 11 o'clock occurred one of the most terrible accidents that Moweaqua has ever known. The local freight from the north was switching down at the mine, one car being loaded. with the new boilers for the mine, and Mr. John Cairns was supervising the placing of that car, with a view to unloading the boilers to the best advantage. Along the west side of the boiler, and leaning against them about three feet apart, were the boiler heads. A few minutes before the accident, G A Kautz was talking to Mr. Cairns and just as Mr. Kautz turned to leave, Mr. Cairns jumped on the car, which had to be run under the chutes a few feet away. There are many accounts of the accident, but so far as we can learn, only one man, Samuel Melcalf, section foreman, was an actual eye witness. Therefore, we give his version. Mr. Cairns got on the west side of the boilers, and as the car neared the chute, he climbed on top. From there it is thought he saw the boiler would surely strike the frame work, so he jumped down between the two boiler heads. Almost instantly, there was a crash and Mr. Melcalf called to his men for help and ran to the car. They found Mr. Cairns lying there, with his head nearly severed from his body, his left leg broken at the ankle and his right arm cut. His position would seem to indicate that he had attempted to jump to the ground, but his foot catching, threw him so that the forward boiler head, the round part of which was turned toward the rear part of the car, pressed his neck against the flat part of the other one, gradually crowding it down, and pressing the sharp edge against his neck so as to almost sever it from his body as above noted. As soon as possible, he was taken from there to Dr Godfrey's office. A careful examination showed that the iron had entered the side of the neck, severing all the blood vessels on that side and crushing one of his vertebrae. He was still breathing, but it was seen at once that his wound was mortal. Everything possible was done to alleviate his suffering, and he was conveyed to his home where he died about one o'clock without ever regaining consciousness. The grief of the stricken wife can be better imagined than described. Our sympathy of the entire community is with her. John Cairns was born at Auchenlech, Ayershire, Scotland, on 30 May 1865. On the 17th day of August 1901, at Moweaqua, Illinois, in the 36th year of his age, John Cairns was summoned from earth. He lost his mother at an early age. When he was sixteen, his father came to America, bringing John and his sister, now Mrs. Robert Reed of this city. The family settled in Coal City, Illinois. Here John worked in the mines for three years, then went to Iowa and thence to Colorado, where he worked in the mines seven years and rose to the position of overseer of a mine. In 1886, he married Miss Kate Gibson of Iowa. To them were born two children, both of whom died in infancy. In 1891, he came to Moweaqua and went to work in the mine. Mr. Cairns was not content to simply handle the pick and the shovel. Though he never attended any institution of learning, but that 'college of the people', the common school. He had fully improved his opportunities, and besides had greatly increased his store of knowledge and powers of mind by a wide and varied course of reading, giving special attention to works treating upon the work by which he earned his daily bread. Besides his fine home in this city, he owned stock in the mine, had some money on interest and a comfortable bank account. Physically and mentally, Mr. Cairns was a fine type of manhood. It is said that as a miner he frequently did the work and drew the pay of two ordinary men. He was a public spirited man, always interested in matters pertaining to the public welfare. He will be greatly missed. The wife of his youth soon followed her children to the grave and on 4 April 1898, he led to the altar, Miss Mary Gibson, sister of his former wife, who, with an infant son, survive him. Besides Mrs. Reed, before mentioned, he has two sisters living in Scotland and one in Colorado. Services held at the M E Church at 10 AM Monday; Rev

President William McKinley was shot and seriously wounded by a would-be assassin while holding a reception at the Temple of Music at the Pan American exposition a few minutes after 4 o'clock Friday afternoon. One shot took effect in the right breast, the other in abdomen. The first is not of a serious nature. The latter pierced the abdominal wall and has not been located. The name of the would-be assassin is said to be Fred Neiman, a 28-year-old Pole, though the name is thought to be a factitious name. He is 28 years old, stands 5 feet nine inches high, weighs 160 pounds, has dark brown hair, blue eyes, and speaks very good English, claiming to come from Cleveland, Chicago and Detroit, but he has told so many stories, it is hard to determine which version is the correct account.

Abner McKinley, the President's brother left Denver, Colorado, in a special car. While here he received a telegram from Benjamin Montgomery, chief operator at the White House which states the doctors estimate chances of the President's recovery about even. It was shortly after 4 PM when one of the throng who surrounded the presidential party, a medium sized man of ordinary appearance and plainly dressed in black approached as if to greet the president. Both Secretary Cartelyou and President Millburn noticed the man's hand was swathed in a bandage or handkerchief. Reports of the bystanders differ as to which hand. The man worked his way amid the stream of people up to the edge of the dais until he was within two feet of the president. President McKinley smiled, bowed and extended his hand in that spirit of geniality of the American people, to well known, when suddenly the crack of a revolver rang out loud and clear above the hum of voices.

President McKinley stood stock still, a look of bewilderment on his face, then he retreated a step while the pallor began to steal over his features. With the leap of a tiger, three men threw themselves forward as with one impulse, and sprang toward the would-be assassin. Two of them United States secret service men, the third a bystander, a Negro who had, only an instant previously grasped in his dusky palm, the hand of the President. After the first shock, the President retreated a step, and then he turned, walked steadily to a chair and seated himself, at the same time, removing his hat and bowing his head in his hands. The President meanwhile admonishing those about him to remain calm, telling them not to be alarmed. The President's assailant was hustled out the rear of the building while guards cleared the building. As soon as the crowd was dispersed, President McKinley was removed in an automobile ambulance and taken to the exposition hospital where an examination was made. He retained the full exercise of his faculties until placed on the operating table when he was subjected to an anesthetic. Upon first examination it was ascertained that one bullet had taken effect in the right breast just below the nipple, causing a comparatively harmless wound. The other took effect in the abdomen about four inches below the left nipple, four inches to the left of the navel, and about on a level with it. The second bullet could not be located. News of the attempted assassination of the President was broken to his sisters, Mrs. A J Duncan and Miss Helen McKinley, by the son of Mrs. Duncan. Tears were shed but both ladies bore up under the shock and showed much bravery. They had both feared an attempt upon the life of their brother and their fears were at last awfully realized. Both women reside in Cleveland, Ohio.

Wednesday, 9 October 1901 issue. Moweaqua Call-Mail:

After a lingering illness covering a period of several months, Mrs. Rachel Breeding died at the home of her sister, Mrs. Fred Snell in this city on Wednesday morning, 2 October 1901, at 9:45 o'clock in the seventy-fourth year of her age. Mrs. Breeding had in reality, been an invalid for two or three years, internal cancer being the direct cause of her death. She was a woman who had lived in life of great usefulness, and her demise will cast a shadow of gloom throughout the entire community. Services were held on Friday afternoon from the Bethany church, southeast, Rev C F Rogers officiating, assisted by Rev Jo B Rogers of this city. The pallbearers were three sons, William T, James P, and John A Breeding, and a grandson, George Breeding, and Elmer and Frank Snell. Interment was in the Bethany Cemetery. Mrs. Rachel Breeding was born in Wayne county, Indiana, on 16 February 1828. When a small child, with her father and mother, W R and Nancy Clark, removed to Warren County, Ohio, where she made her home until the spring of 1854, when she again, with her father and mother and other members of the family, removed to Shelby county, Illinois. Here she resided until November 8, 1855, at which time she was united in marriage to Seneca L Breeding. She again returned to Warren County, Ohio, the home of her youth, there to live until November 1862, when she, with her husband and family returned to Shelby county, Illinois, and settled in the present home. Here she continued to reside until God called her to home to the great beyond at 9:45 AM, Wednesday, 2 October 1901, at the ripe age of 73 years, 7 months and 16 days. Her husband preceded her to the spirit world on 28 May 1899. She was the mother of three sons, William T, James P, and John A, all of whom survive her. She also leaves eight grandchildren and one awaited her coming. She was the second in a family of eleven children as follows: Rebecca Fothergail of St Louis, Missouri, Rachel Breeding, Assumption, Illinois, the deceased; Mary Ann who died in Warren County, Ohio in 1853 in young womanhood; Matilda Certain of LaFountaine, Kansas, Eliza Snell, James W and Wm J Clark, Ruth E Smith, John Clark of Moweaqua, Illinois, Jasper N Clark of Liberty, Kansas. Emery Clark, who died in Warren County, Ohio, in childhood. All the brothers and sisters are living, as well as the sister of the deceased's mother, Mrs. Ruth Emery of Kansas City, Missouri, who is past the age of 83 years, and were present during the illness of the deceased; and including Mrs. Emery, There were representatives of four generations of the family at her death. It is very remarkable that in a family of nine, the youngest of whom is 57 and the oldest 75, this should be the first death in nearly half a century. Having been in very delicate health since the death of her husband, Mrs. Breeding sought relief in treatment at the sanitarium at Indianapolis, where for a time, she felt benefited. But a severe and unexpected attack of her malady seized her, and at her request, an effort was made to remove her to her home. Upon arriving with her at Moweaqua, her son found it impossible to move her farther at that time. Thus it came that she was called to rest from the midst of loving relatives, who ministered to her in the home of a sister, instead of being called from her own home, which she loved so well, and where none knew her but to love her. It was at this time that her family was made aware of the nature of her affliction, which developed into malignant cancer of the stomach and bowels. She was a member of the Methodist church, but in February 1887, for convenience, she united with the Church of God. A kind and loving sister, a devoted wife and mother, a true Christian, a faithful friend, she always found her greatest happiness when doing the most for the good of others. On Sunday, preceding her death, when she fully realized that the sands of her life were almost run out, relatives and friends stood about the bedside and sang some of the old songs. Just before passing away, she spoke as though she saw her sainted husband and seemed conscious to the last. The end was as peaceful as a golden sunset, as hopeful as a radiant dawn, and it was the sunset of her beautiful earthly life, the sunrise of her immortal life with the redeemed.
